Biennial Report Idaho. State Library Commission, 1920 Legends Never Die Richard Ian Kimball, 2017-04-28 With every touchdown home run and three pointer star athletes represent an American dream that only an elite group blessed with natural talent can achieve However Kimball concentrates on what happens once these modern warriors meet their untimely demise As athletes die legends rise in their place The premature deaths of celebrated players not only capture and immortalize their physical superiority but also jolt their fans with an unanticipated intensity These athletes escape the inevitability of aging and decline of skill with only the prime of their youth left to be remembered But early mortality alone does not transform athletes into immortals The living ultimately gain the power to construct the legacies of their fallen heroes In Legends Never Die Kimball explores the public myths and representations that surround a wide range of athletes from Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio to Dale Earnhardt and Bonnie McCarroll Kimball delves deeper than just the cultural significance of sports and its players he examines how each athlete s narrative is shaped by gender relations religion and politics in contemporary America In looking at how Americans react to the tragic deaths of sports heroes Kimball illuminates the important role sports play in US society and helps to explain why star athletes possess such cultural power Suffrage at 100 Stacie Taranto, Leandra Zarnow, 2020-08-04 Suffrage at 100 looks at women s engagement in US electoral politics and government over the one hundred years since the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment In the 2018 midterm elections 102 women were elected to the House and 14 to the Senate a record for both bodies And yet nearly a century after the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment the notion of congressional gender parity by 2020 a stated goal of the National Women s Political Caucus at the time of its founding in 1971 remains a distant ideal In Suffrage at 100 Stacie Taranto and Leandra Zarnow bring together twenty two scholars to take stock of women s engagement in electoral politics over the past one hundred years This is the first wide ranging collection to historically examine women s full political engagement in and beyond electoral office since they gained a constitutional right to vote The book explores why women s access to and influence on political power remains frustratingly uneven particularly for women of color and queer women Examining how women have acted collectively and individually both within and outside of electoral and governmental channels the book moves from the front lines of community organizing to the highest glass ceiling Essays touch on labor and civil rights education environmentalism enfranchisement and voter suppression conservatism vs liberalism indigeneity and transnationalism LGBTQ and personal politics Pan Asian Chicana and black feminisms commemoration and public history and much more Contributors Melissa Estes Blair Eileen Boris Marisela R Ch vez Claire Delahaye Nicole Eaton Liette Gidlow Holly Miowak Guise I upiaq Emily Suzanne Johnson Dean J Kotlowski Monica L Mercado Johanna Neuman Kathleen Banks Nutter Katherine Parkin Ellen G Rafshoon Bianca Rowlett Sarah B Rowley Ana Stevenson Barbara Winslow Judy Tzu Chun Wu Nancy Beck Young Spiritual Care in an Age of #BlackLivesMatter Danielle J.
