G. P. McGregor, 2002 This book is written primarily as a guide for teachers of English as a second language drawing upon experiences and research in Uganda Zambia Kenya South Africa and Britain It acknowledges the recent progress and expansion of education in the African countries and the necessity to equip non specialist teachers who must nevertheless deliver curricula in English to large classes with limited resources and nurture a high standard of English in their students The work has relevance also for pedagogues and linguists Chapters are included on using the students first language experience English and communication encouraging students to co operate rather than compete an assessment of the vital primary experience vocabulary and how to teach it English for real conversation improving reading skills and the choice of books writing grammar and what is meant by knowing the grammar of a language literature life and poetry Psychology and the Challenges of Life Jeffrey S. Nevid, Spencer A. Rathus, 2009-11-23 A long respected standard in the psychology of adjustment Psychology and the Challenges of Life Eleventh Edition has been thoroughly updated and contemporized to provide students the ability to reflect on how psychology relates to the lives we live and the roles that psychology can play in helping us with the challenges we face Authors Jeffrey Nevid and Spencer Rathus explore the many applications of psychological concepts and principles used to meet the challenges of daily life while encouraging students to apply concepts to themselves through active learning exercises self assessment questionnaires and journaling exercises The Deck Builder STEPHEN SPOSATO, 2013-05-24 A Zen treatment of one of the most fundamental aspects of life that of building and dwelling the Deck Builder reflects on the mindfulness that one can bring to his or her daily life through philosophy and our relationship to the natural sciences with an essay on science its triumphs and relativity to the human spirit and an accompanying essay on the use of language for philosophy and science A Companion to American Cultural History Karen Halttunen,2008-04-15 A Companion to American Cultural History offers a historiographic overview of the scholarship with special attention to the major studies and debates that have shaped the field and an assessment of where it is currently headed 30 essays explore the history of American culture at all analytic levels Written by scholarly experts well versed in the questions and controversies that have activated interest in this burgeoning field Part of the authoritative Blackwell Companions to American History series Provides both a chronological and thematic approach topics range from British America in the Eighteenth Century to the modern day globalization of American Culture thematic approaches include gender and sexuality and popular culture Critical Communication Theory Sue Curry Jansen,2002-11-19 Critical theorist feminist and censorship expert Sue Curry Jansen brings a fresh perspective to contemporary communication inquiry Jansen engages two key questions at the heart of a critical politics of communication What do we know And how do we know it The questions are not unique to our era she notes but our responses to them are our own Looking at issues of globalization science politics gender social inequality and other social formations that shape our world this insightful book advocates a new agenda not only for communication research but also for the writing_and language_that comes out of it Public Health Communication Challenges to Minority and Indigenous Communities Aiseng, Kealeboga,Fadipe, Israel A.,2024-04-30 Language has emerged as both a powerful bridge and a formidable barrier in the realm of public health communication The ongoing COVID 19 pandemic has highlighted a significant challenge faced by minority and indigenous communities particularly in regions of Sub Saharan Africa It s a challenge deeply rooted in the historical use of colonial languages English French and Spanish to disseminate critical health information For many this has translated into a linguistic exclusion depriving them of access to essential resources and a voice in matters of national interest This issue transcends mere communication it touches upon the fundamental rights of individuals to participate in their own healthcare decisions and influences their sense of belonging and citizenship Public Health Communication Challenges to Minority and Indigenous Communities proposes a solution with a transformative potential This groundbreaking edited volume invites scholars from diverse fields to contribute their research shedding light on the linguistic dimensions of public health communication during the COVID 19 era By investigating the impact of language on various aspects of society from medical information to education this book seeks to synthesize the wealth of sociolinguistic research into an accessible framework It s an invitation to explore the role of language in shaping our perceptions of citizenship belonging and empowerment Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Sara Hayden,Lynn O'Brien Hallstein,2010-06-14 Women who came of age in the late twentieth century were raised in the era of choice they grew up believing that reproductive decision making is a political right a responsibility of women living the successes of second wave feminism and under their control

Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Explorations into Discourses of Reproduction explores contemporary maternity both within and in light of these late twentieth century understandings Employing a variety of feminist communication approaches the volume s contributors discuss how discourses of choice shape and are shaped by women s identities and experiences as non mothers and how those same discourses affect and reflect private practices and public policies related to reproduction and motherhood Through this process the contributors illustrate a variety of ways of conducting feminist thinking research and practices within the communication discipline Major sub disciplines within communication studies are represented here including feminist organizational interpersonal rhetorical critical cultural and social movement studies Whereas many of the previous scholarly investigations into maternity highlight only one aspect or phase of motherhood Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice is unique because it investigates discourses of choice across the arc of maternity and as enacted through various non maternal subject positions
