Republic Of East L A:

The Republic of East LA Luis J. Rodriguez, 2003-03-04 From the award winning author of Always Running comes a brilliant collection of short stories about life in East Los Angeles Whether hilariously capturing the voice of a philosophizing limo driver whose dream is to make the most of his rap metal garage band in My Ride My Revolution or the monologue styled rant of a testifying tent revivalist named Ysela in Oiga Rodriguez squeezes humor from the lives of people who are not ready to sacrifice their dreams due to circumstance In these stories Luis J Rodriguez gives eloquent voice to the neighborhood where he spent many years as a resident a father an organizer and finally a writer a neighborhood that offers more to the world than its appearance allows Los Angeles Magazine ,2002-05 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian

A User's Guide to Postcolonial and Latino Borderland Fiction Frederick Luis Aldama, 2010-01-01 Why are so many people attracted to narrative fiction How do authors in this genre reframe experiences people and environments anchored to the real world without duplicating real life In which ways does fiction differ from reality What might fictional narrative and reality have in common if anything By analyzing novels such as Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things Amitav Ghosh's The Glass Palace Zadie Smith's White Teeth and Hari Kunzru's The Impressionist along with selected Latino comic books and short fiction this book explores the peculiarities of the production and reception of postcolonial and Latino borderland fiction Frederick Luis Aldama uses tools from disciplines such as film studies and cognitive science that allow the reader to establish how a fictional narrative is built how it functions and how it defines the boundaries of concepts that appear susceptible to limitless interpretations Aldama emphasizes how postcolonial and Latino borderland narrative fiction authors and artists use narrative devices to create their aesthetic blueprints in ways that loosely guide their readers imagination and emotion In A User's Guide to Postcolonial and Latino Borderland Fiction he argues that the study of ethnic identified narrative fiction must acknowledge its active engagement with world narrative fictional genres storytelling modes and techniques as well as the way such fictions work to move their audiences Urban Transformations in the U.S.A. Julia Sattler, 2016-01-15 How did American cities change throughout the 20th and early 21st century This timely publication integrates research from American Literary and Cultural Studies Urban Studies and History The essays range from negotiations of the ethnic city in US literature and media to studies of recent urban phenomena and their representations gentrification re appropriation and conversion of urban spaces in the USA These interdisciplinary and intercultural perspectives on American cities provide unique points of access for studying the complex narratives of urban transformation Border Bandits Camilla Fojas,2009-06-03 The southern frontier is one of the most emotionally charged zones in the United States second only to its historical predecessor and partner the western frontier Though they span many genres border films share common themes trace the mood swings of public policy and shape our cultural agenda In this examination Camilla Fojas studies how major Hollywood films exploit the border between Mexico and the United States to tell a story about U S dominance in the American hemisphere She charts the shift from the mythos of the open western frontier to that of the embattled southern frontier by offering in depth analyses of particular border films from post World War II Westerns to drug trafficking films to contemporary Latino a cinema within their historical and political contexts Fojas argues that Hollywood border films do important social work by offering a cinematic space through which viewers can manage traumatic and undesirable histories and ultimately reaffirm core American values At the same time these border narratives delineate opposing values and ideas Latino border films offer a critical vantage onto these topics they challenge the presumptions of U S nationalism and subsequent cultural attitudes about immigrants and immigration and often critically reconstruct their Hollywood kin By analyzing films such as Duel in the Sun The Wild Bunch El Norte The Border Traffic and Brokeback Mountain Fojas demands that we reexamine the powerful mythology of the Hollywood borderlands This detailed scrutiny recognizes that these films are part of a national narrative comprised of many texts and symbols that create the myth of the United States as capital of the Americas Spilling the Beans in Chicanolandia Frederick Luis Aldama,2006-04-01 Since the 1980s a prolific second wave of Chicano a writers and artists has tremendously expanded the range of genres and subject matter in Chicano a literature and art Building on the pioneering work of their predecessors whose artistic creations were often tied to political activism and the civil rights struggle today s Chicano a writers and artists feel free to focus as much on the aesthetic quality of their work as on its social content They use novels short stories poetry drama documentary films and comic books to shape the raw materials of life into art objects that cause us to participate empathetically in an increasingly complex Chicano a identity and experience This book presents far ranging interviews with twenty one second wave Chicano a poets fiction writers dramatists documentary filmmakers and playwrights Some are mainstream widely recognized creators while others work from the margins because of their sexual orientations or their controversial positions Frederick Luis Aldama draws out the artists and authors on both the aesthetic and the sociopolitical concerns that animate their work Their conversations delve into such areas as how the artists or writers life experiences have molded their work why they choose to work in certain genres and how they have transformed them what it means to be Chicano a in today s pluralistic society and how Chicano a identity influences and is influenced by contact with ethnic and racial identities from around the world Los Angeles Magazine ,2002-05 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California
