No Mask, No Filter Nico van Oudenhoven, Rona Jualla van Oudenhoven, This book challenges what the authors see as a privileged narrative entertained by NGOs in the Global North when it comes to their relationship with their counterparts from the Global South It suggests approaches to jointly generate new knowledge high quality networks and valuable reciprocal and validated collaboration Issues such as the Law of Detrimental Effect Collateral Beauty the Collective Psychosis and Bureaucrats Pain as a Catalyst Diversity Equity and Inclusion and Intercultural Communication are highlighted Love, Language, Place, and Identity in Popular Culture María Ramos-García, Laura Vivanco, 2020-01-31 Love Language Place and Identity in Popular Culture Romancing the Other explores the varied representations of Otherness in romance novels and other fiction with strong romantic plots Contributors approaches range from sociolinguistics to cultural studies and the texts analyzed are set on four continents with particular emphasis on Caribbean and Atlantic islands What all the essays have in common is the exploration of representations of the Other be it in an inter racial or inter cultural relationship Chapters are divided into two parts the first examines place travel history and language in 20th century texts while the second explores tensions and transformations in the depiction of Otherness mainly in texts published in the early 21st century This book reveals that even at the end of the 20th century these texts display neocolonialist attitudes towards the Other While more recent texts show noticeable changes in attitudes these changes can often fall short as stereotypes and prejudices are often still present just below the surface in popular novels The understudied field of popular romance in which the Other is frequently present as a love interest proves to be a fruitful area in which to explore the potential and the realities of the treatment of Otherness in popular culture Scholars of literature communication romance and rhetoric will find this book particularly useful The Christian world magazine (and family visitor) ,1880 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1895 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1895 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1895 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002
