orthodoxies of twentieth century design history This book provides a key critical statement on mid twentieth century urban design and city planning focused principally upon the period between the start of the Second World War to the mid sixties The various figures and currents covered here represent a largely overlooked field within the history of 20th century urbanism In this period while certain modernist practices assumed an institutional role for post war reconstruction and flourished into the mainstream such practices also faced opposition and criticism leading to the production of alternative visions and strategies Spanning from a historically informed modernism to the increasing presence of urban conservation the contributors examine these alternative approaches to the city and its architecture National Union Catalog ,1968 Includes entries for maps and atlases Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan,2013-06-20 This title tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move leadership in communities of faith leadership as taught in theological education and training religious leadership impacting social change and social justice and more Topics are examined from multiple perspectives traditions and faiths The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2006 Catholic nuns and sisters in a secular age Carmen M. Mangion,2020-01-09 This is the first in depth study of post war female religious life It draws on archival materials and a remarkable set of eighty interviews to place Catholic sisters and nuns at the heart of the turbulent 1960s integrating their story of social change into a larger British and international one Shedding new light on how religious bodies engaged in modernisation it addresses themes such as the Modern Girl and youth culture 1968 generational discourse post war modernity the voluntary sector and the women s movement Women religious were at the forefront of the Roman Catholic Church s movement of adaptation and renewal towards the world This volume tells their stories in their own words Catholic Almanac Felician A. Foy,1969 Proceedings of the 17th International Symposium on Advancement of Construction Management and Real Estate Jiayuan Wang,Zhikun Ding,Liang Zou,Jian Zuo,2013-08-16 The Chinese Research Institute of Construction Management CRIOCM in collaboration with Shenzhen University SZU proudly invites all academics researchers and professionals to participate in the CRIOCM 2012 the 17th International Symposium on Advancement of Construction Management and Real Estate We will uphold and preserve the idea and tradition of pragmatism and innovation to offer an excellent academic and communication platform for academics and professionals to exchange information on the latest developments in real estate and construction management American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity Josie McSkimming,2016-10-04 There is an increasing interest in the influence of religious fundamentalism upon people s motivation identity and decision making Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Re construction of Identity details the stories of those who have left Christian fundamentalist churches and how they change after they have left It considers how the previous fundamentalist identity is shaped by aspects of church teaching and discipline that are less authoritarian and coercive and more subtle and widely spread throughout the church body That is individuals are understood as not only subject to a form of judgment but also exercise it with everyone seemingly complicit in maintaining the stability of the church organisation This book provocatively illustrates that the reasons for leaving an evangelical Christian church may be less about what happens outside the church in terms of the lures and attractions of the secular world and more about the experience within the community itself

The Art of Winning Souls Michael Casey, 2012-05-01 In his chapter on the procedure for the reception of new brothers Saint Benedict makes provision for entrusting them to the care of a senior who is skilled in winning souls who will diligently pay attention to them in everything 58 6 In The Art of Winning Souls Pastoral Care of Novices Michael Casey OCSO reflects on what this means today based on his own experience and observation of the fruitful ministry of others Here Casey focuses on the pastoral care given in the name of a monastic community to those who enter it from initial contact up to the point where their vocation has recognizably stabilized His reflections are not intended to be prescriptive They are rather descriptive of what he considers to be best practice as he has encountered this in his experience of many different expressions of the monastic and Benedictine charism This book promises to serve as an indispensable resource for vocation directors novice directors and junior directors for years to come

Sharing the Journey Robert Wuthnow, 1996-07-01 A look at how support groups have affected American society argues that although support groups provide a warmth and security that holds society together they can lead to an unhealthy self absorption and a trivialized sense of what is sacred

The Epworth Herald , 1905

The Fathers of the Church in Christian Theology Fedou, 2019-06-26 The main purpose of The Fathers of the Church in Christian Theology is to argue that Patristic studies still has much to contribute to theological reflections in our time Throughout history the reading of the Fathers of the Church has made major contributions to Christian thinking This fecundity was notably verified in the 20th century through the work of theologians like Henri de Lubac and Hans Urs von Balthasar It was as well manifested broadly in the life of the church that with the Vatican II council drew from the patristic tradition a source of inspiration for its own renewal However even though the research and work on early Christianity has experienced considerable growth for several decades Christian theology is today confronted with new questions Thus what status to recognize in the exegesis of the Fathers Has not the distance from the heritage of patristic thinking been widened More radically do not the demands of contextual theologies on diverse continents compel a distancing away from some traditions that formerly were principally limited to Mediterranean and European regions If these questions must be taken into account they nevertheless cannot dispense with Christian theology being today as yesterday inspired and made fecund by the writings of the Fathers Michel F dou attempts to shed light on what in our own era justifies the necessity of a patristic theology He shows how the reading of the Fathers contributes to the understanding of the faith in the different fields of Christian thinking It highlights the importance of their writings for the spiritual life and the valuable nourishment that they thus offer to our times

Transformative Renewal in the Catholic Church John O'Brien, This book explores transformative renewal in the Catholic Church Both practical and systematic it examines 6 pastoral initiatives unfolding at local level and their coherence with the synodal path inaugurated by Pope Francis to argue that the Church is on the cusp of incipient development of tradition It promotes mutual learning with integrity between different ecclesial perspectives rooted in patience as spiritual power enabling contemplative purposefulness in a renewal journey which cannot be completed easily quickly or completely Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1965 Crying Out for Justice Full-Throated and Unsparingly Tim Stier ,2015-03-17 Many people ask why more Catholic priests don t speak up about the crisis roiling the Church the rampant sexual abuse of children and youth the second class status of women the denial of dignity and respect for gay and lesbian persons and the woeful and at times criminal behavior of bishops Crying Out for Justice Full Throated and Unsparingly is one priest s personal story of awakening to the urgent need for structural reform Tim Stier s 25 years of experience as a parish priest in five parishes in the suburbs of Oakland California and ten more years in voluntary exile provide ample evidence that the Catholic Church is in dire need of change Real reform requires truth telling and this book does a lot of that The abysmal leadership in many dioceses and parishes causes real suffering to real people
