Cracking the AP Human Geography Exam, 2012 Edition Princeton Review,Jon Moore,2011-09-06 Reviews topics covered on the test offers tips on test taking strategies and includes two full length practice tests with answers and explanations Cracking the AP Human Geography Exam, 2011 Edition Princeton Review,2010-09 Review of all topics from land use to population pyramids 2 full length practice tests with detailed explanations The AARP Crash Course in Finding the Work You Love Samuel Greengard,2008 Boomers reinvented society now they re reinventing themselves and AARP wants to facilitate that process This book explores both the motivations and the methods of those taking part in the social phenomenon known as recareering A new generation of American workers is no longer counting the days until retirement instead they re seeking greater fulfillment in their personal lives by tackling new and often much more socially significant work Switching careers is a challenge at any age yet boomers may have more to overcome than their younger counterparts Author Greengard shows readers how to sort out their feelings about their existing career successfully transition to a new one and work toward a greater sense of balance in their daily lives Profiles of recareering veterans show how others have attained their own goals These are rounded out by tips quizzes worksheets how to sidebars and other practical resources From publisher description Front-Line Workers in the Global Service Economy Giovanna Fullin,2021-06-17 Walking around the commercial streets of New York San Francisco Milan London or Paris and looking at the succession of multinational chain stores windows you can easily forget what country you are in However if you hear the small talk among the employees you hear very different stories In New York a 30 year old woman is worried because she does not know if she will work enough hours to make a living the following week whereas in Milan a mother of the same age knows she will work 20 hours a week but is concerned about whether her contract will be renewed at the end of the following month Following three years of fieldwork which included 100 in depth interviews with front line retail workers and unionists in New York City and Milan Front Line Workers in the Global Service Economy investigates both the lived experiences of salespersons in the fast fashion industry a retail sector made of large chains of stores selling fashion garments at low prices and the possibilities of collective action and structured forms of resistance to these global trends In the face of economic globalization and vigorous managerial efforts to minimize labor costs and to standardize the retail experience mass fashion workers stories tell us how strong the pressure toward work devaluation in low skilled service sectors can be and how devastating its effects are on the workers themselves All I Want Is a Job! Mary Gatta,2014-04-02 In All I Want Is a Job Mary Gatta puts a human face on workforce development policy An ethnographic sociologist Gatta went undercover posing as a client in a New Jersey

One Stop Career Center One Stop Centers developed as part of the federal Workforce Investment Act are supposed to be an unemployed worker's go to resource on the way to re employment But how well do these centers function With swarms of new clients coming through their doors are they fit for the task of pairing America's workforce with new jobs Weaving together her own account with interviews of jobless women and caseworkers Gatta offers a revealing glimpse of the toll that unemployment takes and the realities of social policy Women both educated and unskilled are particularly vulnerable in the current economy Since they are routinely paid less than their male counterparts economic security is even harder for them to grasp And women are more easily tracked into available low wage work in sectors such as retail or food service Originally designed to pair job ready workers with available openings the current system is ill fitted for diverse clients who are seeking gainful employment Even if One Stops were better suited to the needs of these workers good jobs are scarce in the wake of the Great Recession In spite of these pitfalls Gatta saw hope and a sense of empowerment in clients who got intensive career counseling new jobs and social support Drawing together tales from the frontlines she highlights the promise and weaknesses of One Stop Career Centers recommending key shifts in workforce policy America deserves a system that is less discriminatory more human and better able to assist women and their families in particular The employed and unemployed alike would be better served by such a system one that would meaningfully contribute to our economic recovery and future prosperity
