Supporting the Mental Health of Children in Care Jeune Guishard-Pine,Suzanne McCall,Gail

Coleman-Oluwabusola,2016-09-21 Combining contemporary research with practice findings this book shows how we can improve the mental health of children in care Expert contributors highlight the challenges that children face and propose innovative models of practice which have been proven to improve outcomes The book describes the difficulties children in care commonly encounter such as vulnerability to self harm substance misuse or inappropriate sexual behaviour It goes on to explore therapeutic interventions such as art therapy or integrative therapy which can be used to address the root of these behaviours With a range of clinical and practical perspectives it also makes recommendations for further training for foster carers for reinforcing professional support networks and for all agencies to have a developed understanding of cultural considerations when working with children in care Those committed to improving the mental health of children and young people in care such as psychologists psychiatrists CAMHS professionals and social workers will find this book an invaluable source of evidence and inspiration

A Medical History of Hong Kong Moira M. W. Chan-Yeung,2021-09-01 This book focuses on a seldom discussed topic despite its immeasurable impact on the health of the citizens and public health in Hong Kong the development of outpatient medical services and their contributions In the early 20th century Chinese elite organized and operated a number of Chinese Public Dispensaries in Hong Kong and Kowloon initially to reduce the prevalence of dump bodies on the streets during epidemics of smallpox or plague and to determine the cause of death of these bodies Later other services including domiciliary deliveries by trained midwives were added The government founded similar clinics in the New Territories After WWII the government took over all the Chinese Public Dispensaries and operated them as general outpatient clinics Over the years more general clinics and special clinics were developed These clinics helped improve the health indices of the population to those of the Western countries by the 1970s Endorsement Modern day medicine increasingly emphasises patient management on an outpatient basis We are indebted to Professor Moira M W Chan Yeung for her tireless efforts in researching the history of medical outpatient services in Hong Kong Through this book readers will gain insights into how outpatient medicine in the past has shaped the city s modern day healthcare system and have a glimpse into its future development Professor Lau Chak sing Head of Department of Medicine LKS Faculty of Medicine The University of Hong Kong An exemplary piece of scholarship that interprets the past and illuminates our future paths Seldom has history so dear and near been told with such prides and hopes for maestros and ordinary folks Professor Gilberto K K Leung Clinical Professor and Associate Dean Teaching Learning LKS Faculty of Medicine The University of Hong Kong Cognitive Changes after Surgery in Clinical Practice Andrew Severn, 2018-10-02 This book reviews current knowledge about cognitive dysfunction in surgical patients to provide a common knowledge base and terminology. It covers the topic in a way that considers all points of view and enables the reader to be better equipped to manage cognitive dysfunction in all its manifestations in surgical patients. Sex and Sexualities in Ireland Barbara Górnicka, Mark Doyle, 2023-10-31 This edited collection provides an invaluable resource of seventeen chapters from a wide range of academic disciplines. These chapters place sex and sexualities in Ireland in historical context and take the reader through the structural changes that have transformed the expression of sexuality in Ireland from one of self-denial to self-expression. The collection does not, however, unquestionably assume a linear narrative of progress; new issues and challenges are also addressed throughout. This book will be of interest to students and scholars from a range of disciplines including sociology, social policy, history, media, gender studies and psychology. The collection is divided into six separate but interlinked thematic sections: Sexualities in Historical Irish Contexts; Young Adults; Sexual Health and Education; Sexual Practices and Health; Minority Sexualities and Genders; Sex Work in Ireland; and Activism and Contestation.
