Post Communist Transition And Women S Agency In Eastern Europe:

Post-Communist Transition and Women's Agency in Eastern Europe Cynthia Simmons, 2014 The exigencies of post communist transition have no doubt affected women s lives enormously the rise e g in human trafficking in Eastern Europe Contributions to this volume address this and other challenges posed by the resultant gender gap in poverty in the region Yet other articles chronicle the heritage of communism in the Soviet Union which despite the double burden of challenging professional work and daunting domestic responsibilities provided women with education and expectations that ensured for some a successful if still difficult transition to democratic rule and a market economy This at times paradoxical situation is investigated under the rubrics of History and Commemoration Women in Post Soviet Russia The Soviet Heritage Beyond the Border and Revelations in Women s Narratives Contemporary Women's Movements in Hungary Katalin

Fábián, 2009-10-14 As the first and only book in any language on contemporary women s movements in Hungary this groundbreaking study focuses on the role of women s activism in a society where women are not yet adequately represented by established parties and political institutions Drawing on eyewitness accounts of meetings and protests as well as first person interviews with leading female activists Katalin Fábri examines the interactions between women s groups in Hungary and studies the unique brand of democracy they have forged in postcommunist Eastern Europe Through her analysis she demonstrates how democratization and globalization with their attendant range of challenges and opportunities have led women to redefine public private divides

Facets of Russian Irrationalism between Art and Life, 2016-04-08 Russia is an enigmatic mysterious country situated between East and West not only spatially but also mentally Or so it is traditionally perceived in Western Europe and the Anglophone world at large One of the distinctive features of Russian culture is its irrationalism which revealed itself diversely in Russian life and thought literature music and visual arts and has survived to the present day Bridging the gap in existing scholarship the current volume is an attempt at an integral and multifaceted approach to this phenomenon and launches the study of Russian irrationalism in philosophy theology literature and the arts of the last two hundred years together with its reflections in Russian reality Contributors Tatiana Chumakova David Gillespie Arkadii Goldenberg Kira Gordovich Rainer Gröbel Elizabeth Harrison Jeremy Howard Aleksandr Ivashkin Elena Kabkova Sergei Kibal'nik Oleg Kovalov Alexander McCabe Barbara Olaszek Oliver Ready Oliver Smith Margarita Odesskaia Ildik Mária Racz Lyudmila Safronova Marilyn Schwinn Smith Henrieke Stahl Olga Stukalova Olga Tabachnikova Christopher John Tooke and Natalia Vinokurova

The Eastern Front in European Memory Xosé M. Núñez Seixas, 2025-09-18 This is the first comprehensive study to examine the place of the Eastern Front or Soviet German War in European memory from a truly comparative perspective across Europe it encompasses the Soviet and post Soviet space Germany both GDR and FRG and the Berlin Republic after 1990 Western Europe and Finland Covering the whole post war period to the present with a particular emphasis on recent events this book offers a cultural perspective on the different ways in which the politics of memory dictated by states interact with and are sometimes counteracted by grass roots memory initiatives The Eastern Front in European Memory focuses on a diversity of sources and agents of memory from monuments and public ceremonies to literary narratives films and other aspects of popular culture that contribute to shaping the historical culture of the societies concerned

The Palgrave Handbook of Women and Gender in Twentieth-Century Russia and the Soviet Union Melanie Ilic, 2017-11-30 This handbook brings together recent and emerging research in the broad areas of women and gender studies focusing on pre revolutionary Russia the Soviet Union and the post Soviet Russian Federation For the Soviet period in particular individual chapters extend the geographic coverage of the book beyond Russia itself to examine women and gender relations in the Soviet East Tatarstan Central Asia Kazakhstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan and the Baltic States Estonia Latvia and Lithuania Within the boundaries of the Russian Federation the scope moves beyond the typically studied urban centres of Moscow and St Petersburg to examine the regions Krasnodar Novosibirsk rural societies and village life Its chapters examine the construction of gender identities and shifts in gender roles during the twentieth century as well as the changing status and roles of women vis a vis men in Soviet political institutions the workplace and society more generally This volume draws on a broad range of disciplinary and methodological approaches currently being employed in the academic field of Russian studies The origins of the individual contributions can be identified in a range of conventional subject disciplines history literature sociology political science cultural studies but the chapters also adopt a cross and inter disciplinary approach to the topic of study This handbook therefore builds on and extends the foundations of Russian women s and gender studies as it has emerged and developed in recent decades and demonstrate the international indeed global reach of such research

Women and Citizenship in Central and Eastern Europe Jasmina Lukić, Joanna Regulska, Darja Zaviršek, 2006 The essays debate women s active citizenship in Central and Eastern Europe in light of transformations in the region since the fall of communism at the end of the 1980s Case studies show that social and political discrimination between genders still exists

Theorising Transition John Pickles, Adrian Smith, 1998 Contains 20 essays which discuss the differing forms of capitalism emerging in former socialist economies Examines inter alia industrial restructuring social and political movements and agrarian reform and social transformations

Life in Post-communist Eastern Europe After EU Membership Donnacha Ó Beacháin, Vera Sheridan, Sabina Stan, 2012 This book examines how membership of the European Union has affected life in the ten former communist countries of Central and Eastern Europe that are now members of the European Union It attempts to answer some fundamental questions Was the reward of EU membership worth the sacrifices made How have the new member states fared Has the promise of EU membership on which so many expectations were based been realised Or have the new member states traded a Socialist Commonwealth with Moscow pulling the strings for an over centralised Brussels bureaucracy that lacks transparency and accountability How has a shared communist past influenced the countries post socialist and post accession trajectory How have the populations of post communist Europe fared Have some done better than others Are these divergences confined to the political economic or social spheres or to more than one If there have been disappointments how have the populations reacted to these By taking stock of debates within domestic elites popular opinion non governmental organisations civil society and external actors this book seeks to answer these crucial questions

The New Yugoslav Woman Branka Bogdan,2025-09-30 From 1945 to 1989 the Yugoslav state connected its claims of progressive politics and gender equality to its support of free healthcare sex education and contraception and laws that supported reproductive choice Yugoslav men and women internalized these messages proclaiming their homeland s superior care for its citizens in comparison to postwar Europe and the United States Even as Yugoslav women faced stigma and abuse for their usage of contraceptives and medical practitioners grappled with new regulations and technology alongside personal ideologies Yugoslavs celebrated their own reformation into new politically minded citizens who carefully navigated tradition and modernity as they reconstructed the nation The New Yugoslav Woman provides a social and cultural history of how Yugoslav communists used reproductive regulation to build a platform of socialism through self management and to position the country as a conduit between the global North and South Author Branka Bogdan traces reproduction as a central facet of socialist Yugoslavia s state formation through the nation s laws medical infrastructure technological growth and state run sex education programs Bringing this history to the present day with a discussion of more than two dozen interviews with Yugoslav patients and medical professionals Bogdan reveals how these recollections show key continuities with the past rather than an abrupt break between the socialist and post socialist worlds Drawing Yugoslavian women s experiences into the geopolitical history of reproduction and the Cold War era state The New Yugoslav Woman reveals the centrality of reproduction contraception and abortion to socialist Yugoslavia s self conception as the developed leader of the developing world

Daskalova,2005-11-29 Combining research theory and practice pan European perspectives and the disciplines of human rights sociology and politics this book offers a rare insight into the multiplicity of issues surrounding women s equality citizenship and political rights in transitional Europe and an expanding European Union From policy making to civil rights domestic violence and education experienced authors present innovative research analysis and suggestions for the future of women as participants in an evolving Europe The Anthropology of East Europe Review ,2000 Citizenship in an Enlarging Europe B. Einhorn,2006-06-06 Citizenship in an Enlarging Europe considers the impact of economic political and social transformation in Central and Eastern Europe in the context of EU enlargement The author uses the lens of gender to examine the processes of democratization marketization and nationalism Advertising, Sex, and Post-Socialism Elza Ibroscheva,2013-06-20 Advertising Sex and Post Socialism explores the role of advertising and the consumption it promotes in changing cultural perceptions of sex and femininity across the Balkan region Elza Ibroscheva theorizes how the marketing of gender identities that has taken place in the years of post socialist transition has fundamentally affected the social economic and political positioning of women Advertising is one of the major factories of cultural signification and as such serves as the most ubiquitous vessel of global norms of gendered selves In addition advertising serves as a literacy tool for learning the grammar of consumption studying the ideologies of femininity and sex before and after the collapse of the socialist project as well as the prevailing portrayals of femininity in advertising in present day Bulgaria This book provides a revealing look at the mechanisms of how post socialist norms of sexual behavior are being engendered and what role media play in this transformative process Work,

Employment and Transition Al Rainnie, Adrian Smith, Adam Swain, 2005-07-28 Since the late 1980s the experiences of work and employment in the former communist world have been profoundly transformed Work Employment and Transition brings together a series of essays by leading international scholars which highlights the varied and complex forms that work and employment restructuring are taking in the post soviet world and makes important theoretical contributions to our understanding of these transformations

Building Democracy in Contemporary Russia Sarah Henderson, 2003 Can foreign donors help build new democracies In the 1990s public and private organizations such as USAID and the Soros Foundation poured huge amounts of money and expertise into Russia to help build the dream of a vibrant democratic society Sarah L Henderson argues that despite the altruistic intentions of foreign assistance agencies and domestic activists foreign aid designed to spur civic growth has had unintended consequences Drawing on extensive field work survey research and work experience for several funding agencies in Moscow in the late 1990s Henderson focuses on donor efforts to support the emerging community of nongovernmental organizations and in particular on efforts to build a functioning women s movement in Russia Her intimate knowledge of Russia s growing NGO community informs a worrisome finding foreign aid has made a tremendous difference but not in altogether expected or positive ways New Russian civic groups serve either the needs of an indigenous clientele or the demands of the foreign aid bureaucracy but rarely both Henderson s research and experience show that while aid has kept a fledgling civic community alive it is a civic community that is disconnected from its own domestic audience The book suggests that large flows of foreign aid have in some ways damaged the long term prospects for democratization in Russia

Corporate Governance in Developing and Emerging Markets Franklin N. Ngwu, Onyeka K Osuji, Frank H. Stephen, 2016-12-08 Throughout the world the Anglo American model of corporate governance tends to prevail but no two countries are identical Governance outcomes in developing and emerging economies often deviate from what theory predicts due to a wide range of factors Using insights from New Institutional Economics Corporate Governance in Developing and Emerging Markets aims to explain the different issues and cultural and legal factors at play and put forward an alternative governance framework for these economies Structured in three parts this text investigates different models of corporate governance it explores the realities of corporate governance in ten nations including the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa and MINT Mexico Indonesia Nigeria and Turkey countries and then considers corporate governance reform This interdisciplinary text will be a valuable tool for students of corporate governance across Business Economics and Law and an equally useful resource for anyone working in or carrying out research in this area

Diversity of Capitalism in Central and Eastern Europe Eric Magnin, Nikolay Nenovsky, 2022-07-13 This book explores the hypothesis of the emergence of a dependent capitalism in Central and Eastern Europe In a first theoretical part this book presents the main approaches that structure the field of comparative capitalism and then examines this model shaped by the inflow of foreign capital In an original way it proposes to integrate the form of the monetary regime into the dependent capitalism analysis and to extend it to Balkan countries The monetary regime is seen as complementary to the other elements of the institutional configuration of dependent capitalism In the second part the authors adopt a historical and empirical perspective First they demonstrate how dependent capitalism has emerged in Central and Eastern Europe and the Baltic States over the last 30 years as part of the process of socio economic transformation that began in 1990 The crisis of 2008 was an indicator of this dependence on Western capital Secondly they extend the analysis to the Balkan countries and show that dependence is even stronger for them particularly in the monetary area as evidenced by the implementation of currency boards or euroization phenomena This book is of interest to academics and students as well as to business and economic policy makers
