registered for the Extended Studies Programme (ESP). Another development in 2022 was an orientation programme for new academics. Academics are encouraged to arrange with their faculty librarians for their students to attend the ongoing BCL skills programme.

2.2 Faculty Liaison Programme

The Faculty Liaison programme provides a conducive interface between the Library and faculties. Through this programme we develop discipline specific learning resources with faculties, provide course support, ongoing information and Digital literacy skills training, workshops on our subject and research litguides, etc. We also provide training on the effective use of scholarly databases. Your knowledgeable faculty librarians are accessible at Levels 2-4 of the Main Library.

3. Research Support

Our research support ranges from specialized Digital Scholarship services to a myriad of other valuable research support services, including Scholarly Communication, Rhodes Research commons (institutional repository, Research Data Management, Rhodes Journal service (RJS) are some of our flagship research support services provided by the Library. Research support also is in the form of workshops on the use of systematic reviews as a research methodology, citing and referencing, how to avoid plagiarism, research integrity (how to avoid predatory journals, conferences, publishers and publishing) and fake news.

4. Library Facilities

The University Library provides world-class learning and study spaces. Our virtual tour will enhance your experience with our venues and facilities. You can tour our main Library and its facilities.

Where to find us

Rhodes University Library has both an onsite and virtual footprint. The physical presence is comprised of five library sites, the Main Library, the Cory Library for Humanities Research, the Alastair Kerr Law Library, the Sound Library, and the Teacher Resource Centre. The two affiliated libraries are the Margaret Smith Library at the South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity (SAIAB), and the International Library of African Music (ILAM).

Library Membership

All registered students and Rhodes University staff are members of the Library. Staff and community members are required to register annually to have access to the library services and facilities. For all your membership queries and problems with login procedures contact the Circulation Desk or Library@ru.ac.za
