The Ruling Elite Deanna Spingola, 2011-04-14 Lincoln's war the North's attack on the South took the life of 622 000 citizens and altered the government's structure Marx and Engels watched the war from afar and applauded his efforts The media and our government controlled schools have presented a deceptive view of every historical event and have whitewashed the most scandalous political leaders and vilified leaders who have worked in the best interests of the people Following Lincoln's precedent setting war we have been repeatedly lied into wars Currently our young men and women shed their blood in foreign lands while well connected corporations make massive profits rebuilding the infrastructure that other corporations have demolished Meanwhile our politicians possessing inside knowledge grow richer through their investments and the bribes they accept from deep pocketed lobbyists They have not listened to their constituents for decades CIA thugs in behalf of the corporations commit terrorist acts in other countries which the U S government and media blame on the so called insurgents In 2010 the Pentagon paid the following to the top five out of 100 1 Lockheed Martin Corp 16 700 588 328 2 Northrop Grumman Corp 11 145 533 497 3 Boeing Co 10 462 626 196 4 Raytheon Co 6 727 232 555 5 Science Applications International Corp 5 474 482 583 Yet throughout the country vital infrastructure is crumbling and politicians are selling taxpayer funded public properties to private interests as a profitable venture The new owners exploit the public by raising service rates while diminishing the services

Mapping Region in Early American Writing Edward Watts, Keri Holt, John Funchion, 2015-11-15 Mapping Region in Early American Writing is a collection of essays that study how early American writers thought about the spaces around them The contributors reconsider the various roles regions imagined politically economically racially and figuratively played in the formation of American communities both real and imagined These texts vary widely some are canonical others archival some literary others scientific some polemical others simply documentary As a whole they recreate important mental mappings and cartographies and they reveal how diverse populations imagined themselves their communities and their nation as occupying the American landscape Focusing on place specific local writing published before 1860 Mapping Region in Early American Writing examines a period often overlooked in studies of regional literature in America More than simply offering a prehistory of regionalist writing these essays offer new ways of theorizing and studying regional spaces in the United States as it grew from a union of disparate colonies along the eastern seaboard into an industrialized nation on the verge of overseas empire building They also seek to amplify lost voices of diverse narratives from minority frontier and outsider groups alongside their more well known counterparts in a time when America s landscapes and communities were constan

Guthrie,Bertha Tannehill,Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer,1910 The Principles of Representative Government Bernard Manin,1997-02-28 The thesis of this original and provocative book is that representative government should be understood as a combination of democratic and undemocratic aristocratic elements Professor Manin challenges the conventional view that representative democracy is no more than an indirect form of government by the people in which citizens elect representatives only because they cannot assemble and govern in person The argument is developed by examining the historical moments when the present institutional arrangements were chosen from among the then available alternatives Professor Manin reminds us that while today representative institutions and democracy appear as virtually indistinguishable when representative government was first established in Europe and America it was designed in opposition to democracy proper Drawing on the procedures used in earlier republican systems from classical Athens to Renaissance Florence in order to highlight the alternatives that were forsaken Manin brings to the fore the generally overlooked results of representative mechanisms These include the elitist aspect of elections and the non binding character of campaign promises National
