Contextualised Critical Reflections on Academic Development

Practices Teboho Pitso, 2021-04-20 This book offers insightful reflections on academic development practices The contributors engage the reader painstakingly in the dynamics of professional learning and effective teaching This volume facilitates the examination of the need for reflection that leads to professional maturity All educational institutions seek teachers who continuously search for effective strategies in improving student success The contributors uncover a variety of approaches as they evince proven suggestions The chapters are refreshing and edifying This book is essential for all teachers lecturers and trainers who want to improve their teaching practice immensely Professor Vuyisile T Msila Researcher at the Thabo Mbeki African School of Public and International Affairs University of South Africa Advancing Agroecology in International Law Rob Amos, 2023-10-30 Producing enough food is a basic human priority and a critical challenge in the face of a growing population and the deteriorating ecological health of the planet Modern agricultural practices promise to maximise the productive efficiency of available land but are one of the main drivers of agro and biodiversity loss Agroecology which places ecological sustainability and diversity at the heart of agriculture is one response to these challenges It presents agriculture not only as the process through which food is produced but as a dynamic socioecological phenomenon that exists through networks comprising natural and human stakeholders at global national and subnational levels Drawing on a combination of agroecological and legal literature this book explores where there is space in international law to pursue agroecology Using a range of case studies it demonstrates how concepts mechanisms and regulatory approaches in the law

advance and can be reformed to further advance an agroecological legal framework that allows humanity to meet its agricultural needs in a way that protects the natural and cultural diversity that is fundamental to the ecological integrity of the planet

Tonga International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2018-01-17 This 2017 Article IV Consultation highlights that over recent years Tonga has enjoyed robust growth and macroeconomic stability Growth continued to be strong at 2.7 percent in FY2017 following 3.4 percent in FY2016 supported by construction agriculture tourism strong remittances and strong private credit growth Inflation spiked in FY2017 because of a new import tax and an increase in domestic food prices The country's external position weakened slightly owing to construction related imports with reserves supported by strong remittances and donor aid The outlook for the Tongan economy is favorable despite external headwinds Real GDP growth is projected at 3.4 percent in FY2018 driven by construction agriculture and tourism

Enhancing Quality in Higher Education Ray Land, George Gordon, 2013-06-19 Interest in the quality of higher education provision has been steadily increasing over the last twenty years This has been driven largely by the international creation of explicit policies and reporting requirements to review audit and evaluate provision The interest is associated in many countries with the granting by governments of greater autonomy to higher education institutions This crucially comes bound with increased requirements for accountability in the exercise of such power Enhancing provision promoting innovation cultivating exploration and adopting information led approaches to practice are at the very heart of higher education As such quality enhancement comes in many guises and is under constant scrutiny Enhancing Quality in Higher Education looks critically at recent developments in higher education taking snapshots of changing practices around the world and analysing the varied theoretical perspectives of quality enhancement that are emerging The opening section draws upon this theoretical base whilst the second section contextualises it through the analysis of a diverse range of international case studies The concluding section considers future prospects for the enhancement agenda in the light of the international pressures facing all systems of higher education in the future Policy will inevitably be shaped by the historical contexts within which national systems are located The book draws on a wide range of international case studies examined by a host of contributing experts The movement towards quality enhancement can be seen as stimulating action at the grassroots of the academy to self generate improvement It is a counter to the prevalent view that change in higher education is essentially about the institutional response to increasing societal pressure and state control and as such is a welcome contribution to the literature This comprehensive volume is essential reading for anyone involved in higher education and educational policy

E-Learning in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Region Alan S. Weber, Sihem Hamlaoui, 2018-02-27 In the last decade due to factors of ICT infrastructural and broadband maturation rising levels of educational attainment and computer literacy and diversification strategies e learning has exploded in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region However significant barriers remain in the region's e learning development lack of research on outcomes and effectiveness paucity of

Arabic language learning objects monopolies and high cost of telecommunications cultural taboos accreditation censorship and teacher training This unique volume is the first comprehensive effort to describe the history development and current state of e learning in each of the 20 MENA countries from Algeria to Yemen Each entry is expertly written by a specialist who is acutely familiar with the state of e learning in their respective country and concludes with a bibliography of key reports peer reviewed books and articles and web resources E Learning in the Middle East and North Africa MENA proves itself as a vital compendium for a wide readership that includes academics and students transnational program directors international education experts MENA government departments commercial vendors and investors and ICT development and regulatory agencies involved in e learning in the Middle East

The Role of ISO 26262 Juan Pimentel, 2019-03-07 Safety has been ranked as the number one concern for the acceptance and adoption of automated vehicles since safety has driven some of the most complex requirements in the development of self driving vehicles Recent fatal accidents involving self driving vehicles have uncovered issues in the way some automated vehicle companies approach the design testing verification and validation of their products Traditionally automotive safety follows functional safety concepts as detailed in the standard ISO 26262 However automated driving safety goes beyond this standard and includes other safety concepts such as safety of the intended functionality SOTIF and multi agent safety The Role of ISO 26262 addresses the concept of safety for self driving vehicles through the inclusion of 10 recent and highly relevant SAE technical papers Topics that these papers feature include model based systems engineering MBSE and the use of SysML language in a management based approach to safety As the fourth title in a series on automated vehicle safety this contains introductory content by the Editor with 10 SAE technical papers specifically chosen to illuminate the specific safety topic of that book
