Gender Roles Definition

Over the past century, significant advances have been made in gender equality. Nevertheless, societies worldwide continue to have a considerable presence of gender roles, meaning the combined behaviors, appearances, and attitudes that society expects and considers appropriate for an individual based on the individual's gender. The prescription of different occupations and responsibilities for men and women, for example, falls under the gender roles definition. A gender roles sociology definition unpacks the origin of gender roles and how they are perpetuated in society.

Gender roles are rooted in the gender binary. The gender binary is the idea that only two genders correspond to two sexes, male and female. Feminist and queer scholars have advanced society's understanding of gender and sex diversity beyond the gender binary. These theories hold that an
