Cross, 2008 Adam Sandler movies HBO's Entourage and such magazines as Maxim and FHM all trade in and appeal to one character the modern boy man Addicted to video games comic books extreme sports and dressing down the boy man would rather devote an afternoon to Grand Theft Auto than plan his next career move He would rather prolong the hedonistic pleasures of youth than embrace the self sacrificing demands of adulthood When did maturity become the ultimate taboo Men have gone from idolizing Cary Grant to aping Hugh Grant shunning marriage and responsibility well into their twenties and thirties Gary Cross renowned cultural historian identifies the boy man and his habits examining the attitudes and practices of three generations to make sense of this gradual but profound shift in American masculinity Cross matches the rise of the American boy man to trends in twentieth century advertising popular culture and consumerism and he locates the roots of our present crisis in the vague call for a new model of leadership that ultimately failed to offer a better concept of maturity Cross does not blame the young or glorify the past He finds that men of the Greatest Generation might have embraced their role as providers but were confused by the contradictions and expectations of modern fatherhood Their uncertainty gave birth to the Beats and men who indulged in childhood hobbies and boyish sports Rather than fashion a new manhood baby boomers held onto their youth and when that was gone embraced Viagra Without mature role models to emulate or rebel against Generation X turned to cynicism and sensual intensity and the media fed on this longing transforming a life stage into a highly desirable lifestyle Arguing that contemporary American culture undermines both conservative ideals of male maturity and the liberal values of community and responsibility Cross concludes with a proposal for a modern marriage of personal desire and ethical adulthood Writing Paragraphs and Essays Joy Wingersky, Jan Boerner, Diana Holguin-Balogh, 2003 The authors present a comprehensive guide to developing well focused paragraphs and essays using a fully integrated approach integrating grammar and writing construction A Guide to Writing College

to name but a few of the important challenges facing students parents and teachers today In taking a passionate stance on hot topic educational issues of the day author Jason Beaudry discusses issues and makes recommendations to improve the current education system He hopes to inspire strong feelings in all readers as he teaches them a better understanding of how Ontarios youth are ill prepared for their future Beaudry explores how weak reading and writing skills are dangerous to students how standardized testing does nothing but waste precious time and resources how investing in more teachers and classroom assistants could change the future how students can help themselves by becoming independent learners and how current education fails to train the next generation of skilled workers He also describes ways for you to be a part of the change This study is the product of one dedicated teachers quest to make a real change in Ontarios educational system He wants nothing more than to improve the ways in which Ontario students are being educated and prepared for life after high school

Security, Socialisation and Affect in Indian Families Ira Raja, 2016-05-23 Sociological research on Indian families has largely focused on questions of household form and structure to the exclusion of not only the more nebulous dimensions of family life and relationships but also the discursive and imagined aspects of our familial worlds such as may be accessed through an analysis of film literature and the electronic media Moreover when sociological inquiry has sought to go beyond the demographic and census aspects of the household it has trained its eye on the heterosexual family centred on the conjugal couple frequently at the expense of those relational patterns and diversities that fall outside the familiar circuits of desire within the family The present volume brings together ten essays from a range of disciplines including law literature anthropology sociology and queer studies to engage with hitherto neglected and emergent aspects of Indian family life This book was published as a special issue of South Asia Journal of South Asian Studies

The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership P.T. Begley, Olof Johansson, 2006-04-11 Among the many significant features of this volume is the dedication to the late Don Willower Professor of Education at Pennsylvania State University It is significant in light of Willower's long record of major contributions to the empirical literature in Educational Administration and his mentorship of many students steeped in the tradition of the so called science of administration These include scholars like Wayne Hoy and Peter Cistone who readily acknowledge their personal and intellectual debt to Willower How is it then that Willower a colleague of the giants of Educational Administration in the 60s and 70s people such as Dan Griffiths Jack Culbertson and Roald Campbell to name just a few came to associate himself with this relatively upstart group of academics and practitioners interested in values of all things As an inheritor of the mantle thrown down by Getzels and Guba all those years ago it might seem strange to see Willower consorting with people who argue about the distinction between fact and value It is true of course that Willower majored in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo as an undergraduate So the language and the ways of thinking among many of those interested in values and ethics were not all that foreign to him He could certainly hold his own in debate with his friend Chris Hodgkinson the foremost philosopher of Educational Administration in the field today and a contributor to this volume
