A Practical Christology for Pastoral Supervision Geoff Broughton, 2021-03-28 This book sets out a Christological framework for developing and delivering pastoral supervision Pastoral supervision is a key consideration for any denomination congregation or faith based organisation so this is a vital resource for well being for clergy chaplains and a wide array of pastoral workers Three central Christological themes the revealing re membering and restoring Jesus provide the theological framework for good supervision practice The book draws insights from three gospel passages Luke 24 13 34 Luke 22 39 53 and John 21 1 14 for its Christological themes The practical Christology for pastoral supervision is deepened and extended through three theologians Martin Luther reformed Emil Brunner neo orthodox and James McClendon small B baptist Professional supervision coaching mentoring and spiritual direction is increasingly sought even required by many people in church and faith based organisations This book will therefore be an excellent resource to theologians interested in supervision practical theology and Christology

The Bible, Justice, and Public Theology David J. Neville, 2014-10-09 Public theology is a developing field of discourse concerned to address matters of pressing public concern in theological perspective for the common good Themes of ecology poverty human rights and especially justice feature prominently in its discourse Although justice is also a prominent theme in the Bible there is no single perspective on what constitutes justice in the Bible and no single view on how biblical perspectives on justice should contribute to contemporary discussion regarding the meaning and implementation of justice Informed and inspired by Christopher Marshall's landmark work on Compassionate Justice Cascade Books 2012 in dialogue with Jesus parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son this collection of studies addresses various interrelations between the Bible justice and public theology Marshall himself proposes that certain parables of Jesus are paradigmatic for public theology and some contributors respond to different dimensions of his treatment of the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son in terms of restorative justice Other contributors by contrast examine broader related concerns such as justice in biblical theological and philosophical perspective the hermeneutics of engagement for justice the relation between feminist theology and restorative justice biblical resources for public theology and popular culture as both a conversation partner with and a medium for public theology

The Dialectics of Discipleship Chris Swann, 2023-08-24 Interrogating Barth's discipleship shaped vision of sanctification this book investigates both Lutheran and Calvinian source material to develop an account that differs markedly from other Lutheran and Calvinist perspectives Highlighting the robustly theological and Christ centred character of Barth's account Chris Swann demonstrates that far from merely valorising human activity Barth advances an understanding of human moral agency action and suffering that is real but relative to the agency of God in Christ to which it corresponds analogously With a focus on the role the image of discipleship plays in giving conceptual structure and shape to Barth's distinctive account of the correspondence between divine agency and sanctified human agency this book evaluates the ramifications of his discipleship shaped vision of sanctification In doing this it gives special attention to Barth's own personal mixed record with regard to Christian discipleship Ultimately Swann retrieves a number of important resources for contemporary theological ethics from Barth's theology of discipleship

All Things Reconciled Christopher D. Marshall, 2018-06-12 The modern restorative justice movement perhaps one of the most important social movements of our time was born in a Christian home to Christian parents specifically to Christian peace workers striving to put their faith into action in the public arena The first major book on the subject was written primarily for a church audience and drew deeply on biblical themes and values But as restorative justice has moved into the mainstream of criminological thought and policy the significance of its originating spiritual impulse has been minimized or denied and subsequent theological scholarship has done little to probe the relevance of restorative perspectives for doctrine and discipleship In this collection of essays Christopher D Marshall a biblical scholar and restorative practitioner who has devoted his career to exploring the relationship between the two fields considers how peacemaking Christians can honor the witness and authority of Scripture including its apparently violence endorsing strands as they strive to join in God's great work in Christ of reconciling to himself all things whether on earth or in heaven by making peace through the blood of his cross Col 1:20

Enacting a Public Theology Clive Pearson, 2019-12-13 The practice of a public theology is to identify issues that require attention for the sake of a civil society and the flourishing of all In diverse ways the writers of Enacting a Public Theology recognise that the present is a volatile moment in time The publication explores the loss of confidence in the contemporary expressions of democracy the climate emergency accompanies the dawn of the Anthropocene the migration of people raises concerns to do with identity belonging and where is home the invasion of land wrongly described as terra nullius and then invaded demands a deepened praxis of reconciliation between first and second peoples and lastly there is an urgent need to speak into the situation of those pushed to the margins because of HIV Aids Enacting a Public Theology represents the thinking of writers from Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand It is both local and global in its concern Each one of the contributors participated in the triennial gathering of the Global Network of Public Theology held in Stellenbosch in 2016

Practicing Peace Michael John Wood, 2022-04-07 This book is about the practice of peace in daily life Although most of us want peace we often struggle to live it Someone annoys us and we find ourselves in a vortex of conflict When we care deeply about something it can be easy to burn relationships if we encounter people whose values differ from ours We may ask ourselves How can we make a positive difference in the world without diminishing others or ourselves Michael Wood explores the practice of peace through the lenses of theology contemplation and action Containing numerous real life anecdotes thought provoking questions and practical tools this is a useful resource for anyone who wants to foster peace in their family workplace or community

Overcoming Toxic Emotions Raymond Olusesan Aina, 2022-07-06 Overcoming Toxic Emotions is a compelling theme to enrich the restorative justice literature on the complex tasks of relational repair in a transitional society With its emphasis on the centrality of rebuilding trust and renewing the mode of being together this book is an innovative addition to the literature on justice in transitional societies It offers an original assessment of the Nigerian experience of restorative justice in peacebuilding This genuinely theological work opens new perspectives for a more adequate understanding of the Christian contribution to peacebuilding and the secular debate on restorative justice Yet the author expresses himself as an African theologian paying attention to the specific context of the problems about transitional justice and integrating spontaneously the wisdom of his dual cultures Yoruba and Christianity With its attentiveness to victim perspectives the book engages the traditional notion of divine omnipotence and vulnerability The book rejects the notion of the fetish omnipotent God It opts instead for an image of God as vulnerable yet powerful in love compelling inspiring and rallying us

Honor, Shame, and Guilt Daniel Y. Wu, 2016-07-31 In this study Wu explores how the concepts honor shame and guilt function in the book of Ezekiel as well as in the wider contexts of their general use in anthropological or social scientific approaches to biblical studies He frames Ezekiel's key terms for honor kabod shame bosh and guilt awah within an analysis of a broad perspective on these terms in the body of the Old Testament as a way of forming the concept spheres within which the specific instances of each term in Ezekiel sit Wu gleans insight from the dominant contemporary definitions of honor shame and guilt in the fields of psychology and anthropology and their application to biblical studies and he reflects on how this broader context informs and is informed by his analysis of Ezekiel The study concludes by drawing together the implications and contribution of the analysis of

Ezekiel and applying them to the development of social scientific models for the future The Relational Power of God

Eleanor O'Donnell, 2023-01-23 When we find the courage to allow our rebel voice to speak many of us question traditional Christian beliefs about God's power and how it is exercised in the world and in the church We ask What if God is not in omnipotent control of everything What if God's exercise of power is relational and noncoercive instead What if it is the quality rather than the quantity of God's power that really matters This book focuses on the theology of power that emerges when we ask such questions It draws on the social Trinitarian theology of Jürgen Moltmann and the process thought of Charles Hartshorne to image God as a Social Trinity in process This vision of God understands the Holy Trinity to be fully relational and thoroughly with us and all creation To think of God and God's power this way ensures freedom for creature and creation and enables a viable response to the problem of evil and suffering It also leads to the conclusion that human relationships in the world and in the church are best modeled on the power sharing solidarity of the Triune God Death

Penalty and Discipleship David Matzko McCarthy, 2016 David Matzko McCarthy's Death Penalty and Discipleship is a faith formation resource to help communities and individuals reflect more deeply on capital punishment It incorporates Scripture Catholic social teaching and contemporary issues that focus on the meaning of God's self giving in Jesus Christ and the implications of God's redemptive work in our lives McCarthy shows how the church's stance against the death penalty fits with Scripture even passages such as an eye for an eye Lev 24 19 20 he attends to the teachings of Jesus and draws out themes of restorative justice and he concludes by locating work to end the death penalty within St John Paul II's call for a new evangelization God loves the world and gives himself to the world and we are called to share God's justice and mercy with others In this insightful and challenging resource McCarthy encourages us to follow the call of Pope Francis to live out the love and mercy of God for all the world Ambassadors of Reconciliation: New Testament reflections on restorative justice and peacemaking Ched Myers, Elaine Enns, 2009 Both Ched Myers and Elaine Enns work for Bartimaeus Ministries in California Myers the author of Binding the Strong Man and Who Will Roll Away the Stone focuses on building biblical literary church renewal and faith based witness for justice Enns has worked for twenty years in the field of restorative justice and conflict transformation Book jacket Christian Ethics Steve Wilkens, 2017-06-27 Steve Wilkens edits a conversation between four major approaches to contemporary ethics in the Christian tradition virtue divine command natural law and prophetic This accessible introduction includes contributions by Brad Kallenberg John Hare Claire Peterson and Peter Heltzel

Redeeming a Prison Society Amy Levad, 2014 The United States criminal justice system is in a state of crisis from unprecedented rates of imprisonment and recidivism to the privatization of the prison system and the disproportionate representation of particular racial ethnic social and economic groups all of which is within a larger social justice context Catholics and Protestants have largely failed to offer vital theological responses Amy Levad offers a Catholic perspective that directly addresses the concrete issues from a strongly interdisciplinary approach and utilizes the rich liturgical and sacramental resources of penance and Eucharist to offer a theological vision of reform The Meanings of Discipleship Andrew Hayes, Stephen Cherry, 2022-07-22 Discipleship is a foundational concept of Christian life which has become a popular and ubiquitous description of belonging and growth in early 21st century ecclesiastical language Discipleship courses and popular writings abound and the term is used liberally in official church documents and strategies for growth and development particular in a western context But does recent use of the word risk reducing the wide range of meanings of discipleship to something less rich and inclusive than is warranted With contributions from an array of leading thinkers scholars and theologians including Rachel Mann Kirsteen Kim and Anthony Reddie this book argues that there is need for more clarity precision and depth in defining what meaningfully and constructively is construed as discipleship Beginning with an overview of how the concept of discipleship has been understood in history the volume goes on to consider some of the key figures who have shaped our understanding of the concept and finally to reflect on what discipleship might look like in contemporary society Justice, Mercy, and Well-Being Peter G. Bolt, James R. Harrison, 2020-03-10 This collection of essays examines how God's justice and mercy intersect in the lives of individuals and their communities with a view to the establishment of personal and social well being in the world The authors drawn from England and Australia approach the theme from a variety of methodological and interdisciplinary perspectives Theological exegetical historical healthcare moral and visual arts approaches are brought to bear in an investigation relevant for the identity and mission of the church in a world characterized by cycles of revenge the perpetration of injustice and the marginalization and persecution of various ethnic groups The practical outcome of these studies has wide ranging relevance for our attitudes toward indigenous peoples the well being of single and married people healthcare throughout the ages the spiritual care of people including those suffering dementia the personal experience of trauma issues of moral judgement and the abiding value of the creative arts

Salt, Light, and a City, Second Edition Graham Joseph Hill, 2020-07-24 Jesus is calling his church to be a multiethnic and missional people who listen and learn from the many voices of world Christianity Graham Joseph Hill issues a moving call for churches to be missional by being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ Hill does this by exploring the thinking of twenty five Asian African Latin American Indigenous African American diaspora Caribbean Oceanian Eastern European and Middle Eastern pastors and theologians These are as diverse as Melba Padilla Maggay Emmanuel Katongole Lamin Sanneh Oscar Muriu Ruth Padilla DeBorst Pope Francis Richard Twiss Lisa Sharon Harper Willie James Jennings Ada Mar a Isasi D az Soong Chan Rah and Mitri Raheb These voices show us the future of missional churches in world Christianity When churches are conformed to Christ they make disciples heal a broken world and witness to Jesus and his gospel Jesus forms us in his image and moves us to be a people of shalom humility character justice peace wisdom prayer beauty and witness The church has had a Reformation but now it needs a Conformation Hill explores biblical themes and the voices of world Christianity to show that a missional church is conformed to the image of the incarnate crucified resurrected and glorified Christ
