Retellings A Thematic Literature Anthology:

Retellings Marlene B. Clarke, Arlene G. Clarke, 2004 This four genre thematically arranged collection groups together selections that retell the same story or events three interpretations of Cinderella from Walt Disney The Brothers Grimm and a Chinese folktale for example or the myth of Oedipus as told by Sophocles Rita Dove Randall Jarrell and Sigmund Freud Retellings includes many frequently taught works of fiction poetry drama and non fiction as well as visual texts and offers a complete introduction to reading interpreting and writing about literature

Retellings: A Thematic Literature Anthology W/CD (1st Edition) , The Pedagogy of Adaptation Dennis Cutchins, Laurence Raw, James M.

Welsh, 2010-02-23 From All Quiet on the Western Front and Gone with the Wind to No Country for Old Men and Slumdog Millionaire many of the most memorable films have been adapted from other sources And while courses on film studies are taught throughout the world The Pedagogy of Adaptation makes a strong case for treating adaptation studies as a separate discipline What makes this book unique is its claim that adaptation is above all a creative process and not simply a slavish imitation or reproduction of an original This collection of essays focuses on numerous contexts to emphasize why adaptations matter to students of literature It is the first such volume devoted exclusively to teaching adaptations from a practical teacher centered angle Many of the essays show how adaptation as a discipline can be used to prompt reflection on cultural historical and political differences Written by specialists in a variety of fields ranging from film radio theater and even language studies the book adopts a pluralistic view of adaptation showing how its processes vary across different contexts and in different disciplines Defining new horizons for the teaching of adaptation studies these essays draw on such disparate sources as Frankenstein Moby Dick and South Park This volume not only provides a resource book of lesson plans but offers valuable pointers as to why teaching literature and film can help develop students skills and improve their literacy

Into the New World Robert Schultz, 2020-10-07 In the title poem of Into the New World Robert Schultz takes the reader on a walk around the World Trade Center site shortly after its destruction In response to this event the book ranges through the extremes of war and peace as well as backwards and forwards in time searching for shards out of which to build an enabling humane perspective Schultz's voice is distinctive yet he also has fashioned poems out of the nation shaping prose of Emerson Thoreau and William James Others are spoken in the voice of a Confederate surgeon an American GI and a Khmer Rouge photographer The poems treat wars past and current the vivid presences of nature love marriage and family always seeking moments of lyric insight Such moments occur as the speaker paddles across a shimmering lake walks at night next to the black reflective wall of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial or courtesy of NASA gazes at the rocky plains of Mars Schultz writes mostly in free verse but he also adapts the music of forms ranging from the sonnet to the ghazal to Dante's terza rima In its variety and generosity Into the New World fashions poem sized meeting places that invite us to be less divided from one another less alone

speculative realism to feminist psychoanalysis and anti colonialism this book represents a radical departure from traditional scholarship on maritime archaeology Shipwreck Hauntography asserts that nautical archaeology bears the legacy of Early Modern theological imperialism most evident through the savior scholar model that resurrects physically or virtually ships from wrecks Instead of construing shipwrecks as dead awaiting resurrection from the seafloor this book presents them as vibrant if not recalcitrant objects having shaken off anthropogenesis through varying stages of ruination Sara Rich illustrates this anarchic condition with hauntographs of five Age of Discovery shipwrecks each of which elucidates the wonder of failure and finitude alongside an intimate brush with the eerie horrific and uncanny Jay-Z Julius Bailey,2014-01-10 Jay Z is one of America s leading rappers and entrepreneurs as well known for his music as for his business acumen This text seeks to situate Jay Z within his musical intellectual and cultural context for educational study Thirteen essays address such topics as Jay Z s relevance to African American oral history socially responsible hip hop and upward mobility in the African American community By observing Jay Z through the lens of cultural studies this study assists the teacher student scholar and fan in understanding how he became such an historically significant figure Each essay includes a set of review questions meant to spark discussion in the classroom Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

From Twitter to Tahrir Square Bala A. Musa,Jim Willis,2014-06-24 This timely guide examines the influence of social media in private public and professional settings particularly the ethical implications of the cultural changes and trends created by their use In the quest for quick dissemination of information web users and content providers find both opportunity and liability in digital broadcasts Examples abound Twitter members tap into news reports well in advance of traditional print media but stories are prone to inaccuracies and misinformation Facebook shares useful data mined from member profiles but this sharing often compromises privacy It is no surprise that use of social media gives rise to a host of moral dilemmas never before encountered This book sheds light on the effects of this new medium on the individual and society Through two volumes chock full of topics found in news headlines everyday the authors look at evolving trends in social media and their impact on privacy politics and journalism The first volume explores the role of this technology on national and international security Volume 2 focuses on the individual as both a producer and consumer of internet content showing how the media itself is changing notions of self identity relationships and popular culture The book s content covers such topics as individual and community psychology citizen journalism and corporate technology Critical Issues in Early Literacy Yetta Goodman,Prisca Martens,2020-07-24 This volume adds in important ways to understanding the power and complexity of the forces in the lives of children that impact their literacy learning The critical issues presented emerge from interpretivist research and thinking practices that are constructivist in nature The chapters by researchers teacher researchers teacher educators and teachers are antidotes to the present political context in which political agendas are being used to define literacy literacy teaching and learning and literacy research in narrow ways Providing a rich source of information about how young children come to know reading and writing as a tool of communication in a range of social and cultural contexts this book presents current research and thinking in the field documents research that is currently being ignored by many who make decisions about children's learning values who children are and what they bring with them to school provides a useful tool for advocacy and for social action toward improving education in ways that can make a difference in the lives of young children and raises thoughtful issues for discussion Critical Issues in Early Literacy is essential reading for early childhood teachers and prospective teachers for teacher educators for literacy researchers including teacher researchers for special educators for those working with English language and foreign language learners and for early childhood education administrators advocates and policy makers Retelling Stories, Framing Culture John Stephens, Robyn McCallum, 2013-01-11 What happens to traditional stories when they are retold in another time and cultural context and for a different audience This first of its kind study discusses Bible stories classical myths heroic legends Arthurian romances Robin Hood lore folk tales oriental tales and other stories derived from European cultures One chapter is devoted to various retellings of classics from Shakespeare to Wind in the Willows The authors offer a general theory of what motivates the retelling of stories and how stories express the aspirations of a society An important function of stories is to introduce children to a cultural heritage and to transmit a body of shared allusions and experiences that expresses a society's central values and assumptions However the cultural heritage may be modified through a pervasive tendency of retellings to produce socially conservative outcomes because of ethnocentric androcentric and class based assumptions in the source stories that persist into retellings Therefore some stories such as classical myths are particularly resistant to feminist reinterpretations for example while other types such as folktales are more malleable In examining such possibilities the book evaluates the processes of interpretation apparent in retellings Index included
