Handbook of Dutch Church History Herman J. Selderhuis, 2014-12-10 Herman Selderhuis as editor of this volume has brought together a team of experts resulting in a unique approach since each chapter is co written by a catholic and a protestant author who have all integrated the latest research results Each section begins with a brief historiographical overview The same time ecclesiastical events are always set within a greater framework of political social and cultural developments for which reason each author has taken the liberty to describe its own method The user will find in this book tables diagrams and illustrations Also many source texts are integrated in the narration These texts are intended to bring the described events and people closer to the reader and as it were to let them speak the words The name of the book as Handbook of the church history of the Netherlands immediately brings to mind three problematic complexes which are relevant to its user First there is the nature of a handbook that is intended to be a good tool but also has its limitations it stimulates and necessitates the use of further books Second the area The Netherlands is a plurality and that is also noticeable in its church history for each region town and village has its own church history Third the history of the church for sure is the most important aspect but this history can only be understood if it is described in the context of political and social developments Catalogus van boeken in Noord-Nederland verschenen van den vroegsten tijd tot op heden

Dutch Studies P. Brachin, J. Goossens, P. K. King, J. de Rooij, 2012-12-06 The language of some eighteen million people living at the junction of the two great cultures of western Europe Romance and Germanic is now taught by some 262 teachers at 143 universities outside the Netherlands including Finland Hungary Poland Russia Czechoslovakia Portugal Japan Malaysia and South Korea These teachers obviously need to keep in regular and close touch with the two countries whose cultural life forms the subject of their courses Yet the first international congress of Dutch teachers abroad did not take place until the early sixties since when the Colloquium Neerlandicum has become a triennial event meeting alternately in the Netherlands and Belgium in The Hague 1961 and 1967 Brussels 1964 Ghent 1970 with the fifth Colloquium planned for Leiden in 1973 Financial support from the Dutch and Belgian governments enables the majority of European colleagues and a number of those from other continents to attend a conference lasting for four or five days and including discussions of the problems involved in teaching Dutch abroad and papers on various aspects of current Dutch studies of interest to those who are working in a certain degree of isolation abroad At the first Colloquium a Working Committee of Professors and Lecturers in Dutch studies at Universities abroad was set up
