Regional Sustainability - South Africa 2015 Students of the 2015 Field Study Program, 2015-06-21 This book is a compilation of the research essays and proposals written by students who participated in the Field Studies in Regional Sustainability Program in South Africa in January February 2015 Each section focuses on a particular problem identified in the context of the Mpumalanga lowveld and the contributions attempt to address these issues by linking policy frameworks with strategies and projects aimed at improving the sustainability of the region Annual Performance Plan Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2015 Cross-nationally Comparative, Evidence-based Educational Policymaking and Reform Alexander W. Wiseman, Petrina M. Davidson, 2018-06-29 In this volume scholars and policymakers examine how large scale assessments and quantitative data are used to inform policy making at all levels of education worldwide and how data can be used to better understand specific national and regional educational challenges Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2015 Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie, Leavitt, Lynda, Bice, Cynthia, 2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs Language, Society and the State in a Changing World Stanley D. Brunn, Roland Kehrein, 2023-04-08 This book addresses the changing contemporary language worlds in three major contexts It first discusses how the language landscape maps of cities are changing as a result of increased migration globalization and global media These features are evident in place names and place name changes as well as the densities and frequencies of language spoken and used in texts The second section discusses how the state itself is responding to both indigenous and heritage groups desiring to be included and represented in the state's political landscapes and also expressions of art and culture In the third section the authors address a number of cutting edge theses that are emerging in the linguistic geography and political words These include the importance of gender anthropogenetic discourse the preservation of endangered languages and challenges to a state's official language policy Through including authors from nine different countries who are writing about issues in twelve countries and their overlapping interests in language mapping language usage and policy and visual representations this book provides inspiring research into future topics at local national regional and international scales Research Anthology on Instilling Social Justice in the Classroom Management Association,

Information Resources,2020-11-27 The issue of social justice has been brought to the forefront of society within recent years and educational institutions have become an integral part of this critical conversation Classroom settings are expected to take part in the promotion of inclusive practices and the development of culturally proficient environments that provide equal and effective education for all students regardless of race gender socio economic status and disability as well as from all walks of life The scope of these practices finds itself rooted in curriculum teacher preparation teaching practices and pedagogy in all educational environments Diversity within school administrations teachers and students has led to the need for socially just practices to become the norm for the progression and advancement of education worldwide In a modern society that is fighting for the equal treatment of all individuals the classroom must be a topic of discussion as it stands as a root of the problem and can be a major step in the right direction moving forward Research Anthology on Instilling Social Justice in the Classroom is a comprehensive reference source that provides an overview of social justice and its role in education ranging from concepts and theories for inclusivity tools and technologies for teaching diverse students and the implications of having culturally competent and diverse classrooms The chapters dive deeper into the curriculum choices teaching theories and student experience as teachers strive to instill social justice learning methods within their classrooms These topics span a wide range of subjects from STEM to language arts and within all types of climates PK 12 higher education online or in person instruction and classrooms across the globe This book is ideal for in service and preservice teachers administrators social justice researchers practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in how social justice is currently being implemented in all aspects of education *Annual Report ...
