presidency of the European Union which took place in the first half of 2003 In addition Magone discusses the impact of the EU structural funds on Portugal and scrutinizes Portuguese foreign and defense policies in particular its reconstructed foreign policy which was clearly instrumental in achieving the independence of East Timor He reviews the growing integration of Portugal into the emerging structures of the Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP concluding with the challenges that Portugal will face in the future in the education health and business sectors An interesting finding is the growing alienation of the population from the political class who clearly make all the decisions in relation to the European Union without proper consultation of the population through referenda In sum this book is vital to understand one of the oldest nation states of the world Jos M Magone is senior lecturer
