Reasons You Know You Is Ah True Trini English Edition:

The Dangerous Dream Paul W. Silver, 2010-07-14 Typhoon earthquake explosion upheaval are words connoting waste and destruction to be sure But remember there is a creative aspect to catastrophe which sweeps away the old and prepares the way for the new Be that as it may in describing the presidency of Duffy Artois the word revolution is simply inadequate Firestorm might be a word used by members of the two party machine that governed America before Artois But in truth no single word suffices Only a bookful of words might hope to capture the visionary reel of the Artois era Hence The Dangerous Dream We can discover no writing nor record that predicted greatness for the ambitious and popular boy growing up in Los Angeles growing first into a passable scholar then into a criminal attorney into a prosecutor a district attorney and climactically in 1998 into the California governor s mansion Young Duffy Artois seemed destined merely for worldly success In 2002 as California governor Artois bravely took all the blame for an abyssal budget deficit even though there was plenty of blame to go around After one 4 year term he was narrowly defeated for reelection For the next 5 years he was content to work behind the scenes as a consultant speechwriter campaign manager He was content to be invisible All the while in the privacy of his heart a critical mass was smoldering Historians may quibble about whether the catharsis began during his term as governor or afterward There is no quibble about the historical fact that by 2007 the year a man named Skipper came along and lighted the fuse Artois had morphed into a walking talking megaton bomb Dictionary of the English/Creole of Trinidad & Tobago Lise Winer, 2009-01-16 Using the historical principles of the Oxford English Dictionary Lise Winer presents the first scholarly dictionary of this unique language The dictionary comprises over 12 200 entries including over 4500 for flora and fauna alone with numerous cross references Entries include definitions alternative spellings pronunciations etymologies grammatical information and illustrative citations of usage Winer draws from a wide range of sources newspapers literature scientific reports sound recordings of songs and interviews spoken language to provide a wealth and depth of language clearly situated within a historical cultural and social context

Food and Identity in the Caribbean Hanna Garth, 2013-07-18 This compelling volume brings together original essays that explore the relationship between food and identity in everyday life in the Caribbean The Caribbean history of colonialism and migration has fostered a dynamic and diverse form of modernity which continues to transform with the impact of globalization and migration out of the Caribbean One of the founders of the anthropology of food Richard Wilk provides a preface to this exciting and interdisciplinary collection of essays offering insight into the real issues of food politics which contribute to the culinary cultures of the Caribbean Based on rich contemporary ethnographies the volume reveals the ways in which food carries symbolic meanings which are incorporated into the many different facets of identity experienced by people in the Caribbean Many of the chapters focus on the ways in which consumers align themselves with particular foods as a way of making claims about their identities Development and political and economic changes in the Caribbean bring new foods to the contemporary dinner table a phenomenon that may subsequently destabilize the foundations of culinary identities Food and Identity in the Caribbean reveals the ways in which some of the connections between food and identity persist against the odds whilst in other contexts new relationships between food and identity are forged Trinidad and Tobago Lise Winer,1993 This volume describes the English and English Creole of Trinidad and Tobago Sources from the early 19th through late 20th centuries are gathered from a wide range of materials novels editorials advertisements cartoons proverbs newspaper articles plays lyrics of traditional songs and calypsos and oral interviews Many of the older texts are now made easily accessible for the first time The introduction includes descriptions of the historical background the sound system grammar and vocabulary speech styles social and linguistic interaction of Creole and English and implications for education and spelling The older sources demonstrate much closer links to other Caribbean English Creoles than previously recognized The texts and recordings of oral interviews are invaluable resources for researchers and teachers in linguistics Creole Studies Caribbean studies literature anthropology and history Sweet and Sour Trinidad and Tobago Johnny Coomansingh,2010-09-03 This book was written primarily for the people of Trinidad and Tobago Nevertheless it would be of great interest to the Caribbean Diaspora and individuals who wish to understand the social cultural political and economic dynamics of a developing Caribbean nation Partially written in dialect the text has afforded him a forum to reveal some secret and uncomfortable episodes in his life His carefree style has allowed ample humor making the narrative quite entertaining In his research on the Steelpan the national instrument of Trinidad and Tobago he was able to take an unbiased glimpse of the twin island state and its incomparable sweetness no matter how twisted the sugarcane owns its sugar However despite the sweetness many terrible upheavals in the society have caused an unforgivable nasty sourness in the system

Interviews with Writers of the Post-colonial World Feroza F. Jussawalla,Reed Way Dasenbrock,1992 Interviews with third world and Chicano authors speaking about their place in the literary canon Spoon to be Dead Dana Mentink,2023-10-31 Mentink has designed a story that will keep the reader wondering and then knowing and then wondering again as the suspects and victims keep changing places New York Journal of Books A murder for the holidays is about to shake things up Trinidad Jones is starting the festive season with sugary confections and a heaping scoop of worry as her shake shop enters its first Oregon winter With snow abound and tourists trickling through she'll do anything to keep her milkshake dreams afloat even if it means catering a holiday steamboat party for some new arrivals in town But when her good for nothing ex crashes through her shop's door claiming he's being charged with murder things go sideways With clues piling up like whipped cream on a sundae and motives abound Trinidad and her fellow ex-wives must solve this murder before she's finally thrown for a scoop The third book in the Shake Shop Mysteries following Trinidad Jones who makes sweet confections and solves sticky situations in her small town The Ashgate Research Companion to Black Sociology Earl Wright II,Edward V. Wallace,2016-03-09 The Ashgate Research Companion to Black Sociology provides the most up to date exploration and analysis of research focused on Blacks in America Beginning with an examination of the project of Black Sociology it offers studies of recent events including the Stand Your Ground killing of Trayvon Martin the impact of Hurricane Katrina on emerging adults and efforts to change voting requirements that overwhelmingly affect Blacks whilst engaging with questions of sexuality and family life incarceration health educational outcomes and racial wage disparities Inspired by W E B Du Bois s charge of engaging in objective research that has a positive impact on society and organised around the themes of Social Inequities Blacks and Education Blacks and Health and Future Directions this timely volume brings together the latest interdisciplinary research to offer a broad overview of the issues currently faced by Blacks in United States A timely significant research guide that informs readers on the social economic and physical condition of Blacks in America and proposes directions for important future research The Ashgate Research Companion will appeal to policy makers and scholars of Africana Studies Sociology Cultural Studies Anthropology and Politics with interests in questions of race and ethnicity gender and sexuality social inequalities health and education
