We Are a Haunting Tyriek White,2024-04-16 WINNER The Center for Fiction First Novel Prize Brooklyn Public Library Book Prize Longlist A Best Book of 2023 NPR Electric Literature Largehearted Boy Black Girl Nerds Le Noir Auteur An absolute triumph Michael Schaub NPR Astonishing Kiese Laymon MacArthur Fellow and author of Long Division What a beautiful haunting and hued narrative of American living I m in love with this story Jacqueline Woodson MacArthur Fellow and author of Another Brooklyn A poignant debut for readers of Jesmyn Ward and Jamel Brinkley We Are a Haunting follows three generations of a working class family and their inherited ghosts a story of hope and transformation In 1980 s Brooklyn Key is enchanted with her world glowing with her dreams A charming and tender doula serving the Black women of her East New York neighborhood she lives like her mother among the departed and learns to speak to and for them Her untimely death leaves behind her mother Audrey who is on the verge of losing the public housing apartment they once shared Colly Key's grieving son soon learns that he too has inherited this sacred gift and begins to slip into the liminal space between the living and the dead on his journey to self realization In the present an expulsion from school forces Colly across town where feeling increasingly detached and disenchanted with the condition of his community he begins to realize that he must ultimately be accountable to the place he is from After college having forged an understanding of friendship kinship community and how to foster love in places where it seems impossible Colly returns to East New York to work toward addressing structural neglect and the crumbling blocks of New York City public housing he was born to discovering a collective path forward from the wreckage of the past A supernatural family saga a searing social critique and a lyrical and potent account of displaced lives We Are a Haunting unravels the threads connecting the past present and future and depicts the palpable breathing essence of the neglected corridors of a pulsing city with pathos and poise Farmer's Weekly, 1922 Dwell, 2003-10 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Katz's ability to make an exotic locale familiar or transform an ordinary place into something peculiar if not completely weird. The Valley of the Fallen and Other Places gathers a pastiche of stories from around the world each of which subtly underlines the relationship between geography and politics. Locations, counties, regions of the world emerge as characters in Katz's panoramic cast as fully drawn as the unusual people that occupy them so that one realizes of each particular account that this could only happen in a place like this. The setting for each of these pieces, whether home or abroad, provides a resonant backdrop for Katz's startling perceptions and cultural acumen. He paints a portrait of Spain in which people are dying of political repression and vividly depicts Italy in the throes of a postwar capitalist hangover. Katz describes Arkansas, its history of racial strife notwithstanding, as an American cultural ark where respect for old-fashioned gumption and the tolerance for human eccentricity have fostered a renaissance of spirit. He captures the poignant ruin of political ideals gone amuck in the image of columns of Ethiopian children being herded through the night at gunpoint undergoing political re-education. Katz's observations of the Sinai where beliefs, convictions, even hunches become howling zeal contrast with Santa Fe's philosophical cogitating and quality of life improvement projects in a New Age mecca that breeds tamer but equally fervent faiths. The cumulative effect of reading this eclectic collection is one of wonder about the mysterious and dazzling world in which we live and the way our lives are shaped by our place in it.

What I Wish I Knew Before Cancer Nicholas Steven Parscale, 2021-03-12 In What I Wish I Knew Before Cancer A Young Man's Memoir Nicholas Steven Parscale shares his experience with battling cancer. Since his diagnosis of pineoblastoma in 2016 at the age of 10, Nicholas has experienced numerous highs and lows, pain and excitement and relapses and new treatments. Throughout his journey, he has maintained a positive attitude and has learned a great deal about cancer and resilience. In this book, Nicholas's goal is to share what he has learned over the past several years with other children facing the same disease. His hope is that by reading this book and studying his suggestions and experiences, children with cancer and their families can be just a bit more prepared for the long road ahead of them. Observe Nicholas's cancer journey and see how cancer is a winding road with ups and downs. Discover how adopting a positive mindset and attitude truly transforms a dreadful situation and aids in coping with changes. Study answers to common questions that may be asked by children along with their parents and friends who are having their first experiences with cancer and receive support in the form of Nicholas's real-life story. Feel inspired by the challenges overcome by Nicholas and his family. Take a close look at the different treatments and opportunities available to children with cancer.
