The Dark Side of Leadership Dr Tessie Herbst, 2014-03-28 This book highlights the fact that leaders do indeed affect the performance of organizations or the well being of society for better or worse to cast either a shadow or light by the exercise of their leadership Modern psychology with its theories of human behavior which does not acknowledge the existence of the spiritual realm cannot explain the carnage and evil often associated with the dark side of leadership This book focuses on the dark side of leadership in a multidimensional manner and provides a psychospiritual approach toward understanding personality disorders and leader derailment It highlights an area that has not been widely studied by leadership researchers to date the dynamic relationship between the psychological and spiritual domains in shaping the dark side which lead to leadership failure and derailment This book calls for a more interdisciplinary approach and holistic understanding of the dark side of leadership inseparably relating body soul and spirit as they function individually and relationally It highlights the fact that the restoration of personality will require sustained dialogue between theologians and the medical and psychological professions Such a theoretical perspective would help us better understand how personality disorders develop not only emotionally and psychologically but spiritually Missing or Murdered in Missouri: Unsolved and Solved Cases Barbara

Kemm-Highton,2011-08-11 Like most other states Missouri has a growing list of cold cases Three women vanish from a home in Springfield in 1992 on high school graduation night A young woman is abducted in Ava and murdered after mowing a church cemetery A 9 year old disappears and her body is found in 1975 A nurse and her children are killed in their home in a quiet new subdivision and two mothers have vanished without a trace An elderly woman who has been featured on the album cover of a popular band is murdered in her Aldrich home Just as solved cold cases have become popularized in a variety of television documentaries Missouri cases are also becoming closed DNA has been the smoking gun in one 25 year old homicide and has sent a prominent businessman to prison People are talking and in the case of a 15 year old murdered in 1982 there have been convictions Surveillance tapes and cell phones have been added to the arsenal of evidence Files are being revised and the media is featuring their stories again These are some of the victims cases and their families who press on and the organizations detectives and experts who support them For God's Sake Antony Loewenstein,Jane

Caro,Rachel Woodlock,Simon Smart,2013-07-01 Four Australian thinkers come together to ask and answer the big questions such as What is the nature of the universe Doesn't religion cause most of the conflict in the world and Where do we find hope We are introduced to the detail of different belief systems Judaism Christianity Islam and to the argument that atheism like organised religion has its own compelling logic And we gain insight into the life events that led each author to their current position Jane Caro flirted briefly with spiritual belief inspired by 19th century literary heroines such as Elizabeth Gaskell and the Bront sisters Antony Lowenstein is proudly culturally yet unconventionally Jewish Simon Smart is firmly and resolutely a Christian but one who has had some of his most profound spiritual moments while surfing Rachel Woodlock grew up in the alternative embrace of Baha'i belief but became entranced by its older parent religion Islam Provocative informative and passionately argued For God's Sake encourages us to accept religious differences but to also challenge more vigorously the beliefs that create discord The Prisons Memory Archive: A Case Study in Filmed Memory of Conflict Jolene Mairs

Dyer,Conor McCafferty,Cahal McLaughlin,2022-09-06 The Prisons Memory Archive PMA explores ways that narratives of a conflicted past are filmed at the site of the experiences and later negotiated in a contested present in the North of Ireland Given the state's failed attempts at establishing an official process for addressing the legacy of the conflict that lasted between 1968 and 1998 there are a number of community and academic initiatives that have taken up this task The Prisons

Memory Archive is one such project whose aim is to research the possibilities of engaging with the story of the other in a society that is emerging from decades of political violence. The PMA filmed back inside the prisons with those who passed through Armagh Gaol 2006 and the Maze and Long Kesh Prison 2007 which were both touchstone and tinderbox during the 30 years of violent conflict. We applied protocols of co-ownership where participants become co-authors of their own story with the right to withdraw up to the point of exhibition. Inclusivity to ensure a multi-narrative archive with prison staff, prisoners, visitors, teachers, chaplains etc. and life story telling where leading questions are eschewed in order to return more agency to the participants. Currently the full archive made up of 160 walk and talk recordings totaling 300 hours of filmed material is available at the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland where it is preserved and made accessible to the public and a website has been designed for educational use of the archive. This collection offers critical reflections on the processes of recording, archiving and utilising the archive in its several manifestations e.g. feature films, website and full archive at the Public Records Office. The perspectives offer a range of reflections including filming, editing, archiving, web design, education and museum practice.
