Positivity Of Prayer Criticism Of Praying:

Positivity of Prayer Ursula Nelson,2014-12-26 Prayer is a form by which we connect to god and is something individuals do to ask for or give thanks for a want or a sought after or favorable change There are a lot of different ways to pray but they all involve thinking of what you require There are a lot of different ways to view the process of turning our ideas into realities or experiencing them in the tangible world but they all involve thinking of what you wish Read this book and turn your prayers into reality Prayers of Jewish Women Markus H. McDowell,2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women s religious and social roles in the ancient world The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men s prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men Reasoner Journal of Freethought and Positive Philosophy ,1854

A Commentary, Critical, Experimental, and Practical, on the Old and New Testaments Robert Jamieson, David Brown, Andrew Robert Fausset,1872 Meet the

Rabbis Brad H. Young, 2007-06-01 Meet the Rabbis explains to the reader how rabbinic thought was relevant to Jesus and the New Testament world and hence should be relevant to those people today who read the New Testament. In this sense rabbinic thought is relevant to every aspect of modern life. Rabbinic literature explores the meaning of living life to its fullest in right relationship with God and humanity. However, many Christians are not aware of rabbinic thought and literature. Indeed, most individuals in the Western world today, regardless of whether they are Christians, atheists, agnostics, secular community leaders, or some other religious and political persuasions, are more knowledgeable of Jesus' ethical teachings in the Sermon on the Mount than the Ethics of the Fathers in a Jewish prayer book. The author seeks to introduce the reader to the world of Torah learning. It is within this world that the authentic cultural background of Jesus' teachings in ancient Judaism is revealed. Young uses parts of the New Testament, especially the Sermon on the Mount, as a springboard for probing rabbinic method. The book is an introduction to rabbinic thought and literature and has three main sections in its layout: Introduction to Rabbinic Thought, Introduction to Rabbinic Literature, and Meet the Rabbis, a biographical description of influential Rabbis from Talmudic sources. The Scripture Doctrine of Christian Perfection Stated and Defended: with a Critical and Historical Examination of the Controversy, Both Ancient and Modern George Peck, 1842 School Prayers United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, 1964 Spirituality and Ageing Albert Jewell, 1999 Spirituality and Ageing presents the experience of ageing as an opportunity for spiritual reflection and affirmation of life. The contributors are religious and spiritual leaders and ethical thinkers from a range of different backgrounds. They define spirituality not just as a religious concept but as the fulfilment of the universal human need for purpose, values and relationships, a sense of wholeness in life. This spiritual dimension helps people face the emotional and psychological challenges of growing older, such as memory loss, dementia, bereavement, and fear of death. Existing systems of social care often focus on the material and physical needs of older people; this collection proposes that the spiritual needs of older people are as vital a consideration for their welfare. Through their spirituality, older people can attain a fuller appreciation and understanding of life, which can also inform and enrich the lives of others. Spirituality and Ageing will be an invaluable resource to carers looking for a holistic and more reflective approach to work with older people. The Lure of Transcendence and the Audacity of Prayer Samuel E. Balentine, 2022-06-24 The discourse of prayer responds to the abiding lure of transcendence. From Gilgamesh to the primordial human beings in Eden to Odysseus, the quest for ultimate truths has summoned forth all manner of human effort: courageous, desperate, pious, impious, successful, failed, invited, forbidden, and like all such lures, one can never be certain whether the glimmer of transcendence is that of a bright and shining star that illuminates the shadows or only a shiny object that seduces one into an inescapable darkness, a fishing lure, for example. In this study, Samuel E. Balentine demonstrates how prayer's invocation of God transgresses the limits of human beings. The author shows how inviting, let alone commanding God to speak, may be the acme of bardic pretension, but in the ancient world, such transgression characterizes the audacity of prayer     A Miracle of Five Minutes Sundo Kim,2015-05-19 In 1930 Sundo Kim was born at Sunchun Pyunganbukdo North Korea Standing at the crossroads of life and death he experienced the living God numerous times and decided to become a pastor In 1970 he was appointed as pastor to Kwanglim Methodist Church in Seoul Korea Through the ministries of a positive application of the word of a new vision of life spiritual healing systematic and creative church administration and special missions he invited many souls to God and gave Christians new spiritual energy     365 Prayers a Year Liam Maxwell,2011-01-20 Each short prayer may be memorised and used as a resource when needed in times of trouble restlessness or boredom These prayers will help you find comfort confidence and relief focus on key values and qualities provide building blocks to positive living offer an inspiring message that is spiritual but practical see through the problems and difficulties of life This books message you are not alone God is always there even though up to now you may have ignored Him Perhaps you never learnt to pray or have succumbed to external pressure and decided you can go it alone Like all habits prayer can be found as easily and readily as it has been lost God is looking out for you especially in your hour of greatest need In a turbulent terror stricken world God is our refuge and strength He has come that you may have life to the fullest This means you can have better health and happiness success and achievement Draw nearer to God through simple heartfelt prayer and you will become a new person The best thing you can do for anyone friend enemy or yourself is to pray on their behalf It shows the depth of your love and Gods love Prayer brings peace serenity and a positive outcome     Kant's Critical Religion Stephen R. Palmquist,2019-06-11 This title was first published in 2000 Applying the new perspectival method of interpreting Kant he expounded in earlier works Palmquist examines a broad range of Kant s philosophical writings to present a fresh view of his thought on theology religion and religious experience     Muslim Prayer in American Public Life Rose Aslan,2024 Drawing on a variety of literature poetry films TV shows and social media posts and an original survey of 350 US Muslims Muslim Prayer in American Public Life provides an in depth examination of the lived experiences of Muslim prayer practices in the United States today     Homiletic Review ,1910     Living Well Joseph M. Furner,2009-07-10 Living Well will make you reexamine your life and help you to be more in Spirit to care enough to do what s right in your life and for our world as a whole Living Well can bring peace into your life     Inspired to Pray Phil Pringle,2009-04-01 In this powerful and motivating book international pastor Phil Pringle invites readers to activate their spiritual lives by understanding prayer as a journey to the highest places of God He sees prayer as an art a craft to be developed and nurtured Prayer is much more than muttering religious words It is a connection with the God of heaven Himself Too often believers fail to bridge the gap between earth and heaven but active prayer releases the spirit into communion with God in another world His world As readers grow they will draw close to a loving God who desires relationship with all who are made in His image When we pray in close contact with God we see greater results on earth and in our lives Pringle appeals to the imagination and the soul and all who engage with these visionary teachings will discover a new dimension to the act and the art of prayer     The

Homiletic Review, 1904      Religion, Religious Ethics and Nursing Marsha Fowler, Sheryl Reimer Kirkham, Rick Sawatzky, Elizabeth Johnston Taylor, 2011-11-14 This is a book that challenges you to step back and broaden your thinking about religion in general and religion in nursing Nurses at all levels will appreciate the applications to nursing practice theory and research Journal of Christian Nursing The Reverend Dr Marsha Fowler and her colleagues have written a landmark book that will change and enlighten the discourse on religion and spirituality in nursing The authors address the awkward silence on religion in nursing theory and education and with insightful scholarship move beyond the current level of knowledge and limited discourse on religion in nursing theory education and practice This book is path breaking in that it gives many new ways to think about the relationships between ethics health caregiving moral imagination religion and spirituality From the Foreword by Patricia Benner PhD RN FAAN Professor Emerita of Nursing Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences and Nursing University of California San Francisco The past 25 years have witnessed an escalating discussion on the role of spirituality within health care This scholarly volume is rooted in the belief that not only is religion integral to nursing care but the religious beliefs of both nurse and patient can significantly influence care and its outcome It offers an in depth analysis of the ways in which religion influences the discipline of nursing its practitioners and treatment outcomes Through the contributions of an international cadre of nurse scholars representing the world's major religious traditions the book explores how theories history and theologies shape the discipline bioethical decision making and the perspective of the nurse or patient who embraces a particular religion It examines the commonalities between the values and thinking of nursing and religion and identifies basic domains in which additional research is necessary The authors believe that ultimately scholarly dialogue on the relationship between religion and nursing will foster and enhance nursing practice that is ethical and respectful of personal values Key Features Offers in depth analysis of how religion influences the discipline of nursing its practitioners and treatment outcomes Uses critical theories to explore the intersections of religion ethics culture health gender power and health policy Includes an overview of all major world religions Focuses on the implications of religion for nursing practice rather than nursing interventions Designed for graduate and upper level undergraduate students nurse academicians and clinicians
