A/AS Level English Literature A for AQA Student Book Russell Carey, Anne Fairhall, Tom Rank, 2015-11-12 Created specifically for the AQA A AS level English literature A specification for first teaching from 2015 this print student book is suitable for all abilities providing stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it Helping bridge the gap between GCSE and A level the unique three part structure focuses on texts within a particular time period and supports students in interpreting texts and reflecting on how writers make meaning Text in Context Andrew David Hastings Mayes, 2000-09-07 The scholarly study of the Old Testament is now marked by a rich diversity of approaches and concerns In the last two decades an interest in the text and the implications for its interpretation is no longer the preserve of a single scholarly community while the reconstruction of the history of the people from whom it derived has been transformed by new methods This new book published under the auspices of the Society for Old Testament Study reflects these new approaches and developments and has a particular concentration on literary and historical study Thus it not only clearly recognizes the diversity now inherent in Old Testament study but also welcomes the integration into its field of the wide range of approaches available in current literary and historical investigation The study of the biblical text and how it is received and interpreted by its various readerships has a certain logical priority over the study of its historical background and authorship Yet an ongoing investigation of issues relating to the latter cannot await definitive conclusions on the former So essays on the text and its reception discuss primary issues which arise in Old Testament study while those on background and authorship reflect the continued vitality of and the fresh perspective possible in more traditional scholarly concerns A Diffuse Murmur of History Fiona Schouten, 2010 After decades of uncomfortable silence Spain has now started dealing with its violent twentieth century past In recent years a vibrant memory discourse has emerged in Spanish society the number of films TV series newspaper articles history books and memorials dedicated to the Civil War of 1936 1939 and the ensuing dictatorship of Franco has increased dramatically Literature has also played its part in provoking and maintaining this memory boom and as a consequence the study of contemporary Spanish novels has started revolving around questions on the responsibility of the author on the impact of literature in society on its role in shaping memories and on its ethical status This book takes up these questions in an attempt to combine the outlook of collective memory studies with the theoretical demands of Poststructuralist theories Focusing on themes such as haunting and the uncanny nostalgia the Bildungsroman genre and autobiography its author analyses memory narratives in fourteen novels by foremost Spanish authors like Javier Mar as Luis Goytisolo Enrique Vila Matas and Manuel Vicent From publisher s website GDR Literature in German Curricula and Textbooks Elizabeth Priester Steding, 2023-09-15 This book analyzes the changing portrayal of GDR literature in German Gymnasium textbooks 1985 2015 Addressing the need for textbook research to broaden its focus from GDR history to GDR literature the author presents case studies of well known GDR authors Bertolt Brecht Johannes R Becher

Anna Seghers Wolf Biermann and Christa Wolf each examining a particular aspect of the societal discourse about GDR literature and the tension between literary text and historical context Taken together the case studies reveal the frequently underestimated power of ideology in literature textbooks They also show how attempts to package these authors into simplified categories ultimately reveal the profound complexities of the GDR literary legacy By examining the clear tension between literature and politics in textbooks and curricula the author demonstrates how ideological messages are transmitted in all textbooks as well as the importance of attending to overt and covert ideology

The Routledge Companion to Popular Music Analysis Ciro Scotto, Kenneth M. Smith, John Brackett, 2018-09-28 The Routledge Companion to Popular Music Analysis Expanding Approaches widens the scope of analytical approaches for popular music by incorporating methods developed for analyzing contemporary art music This study endeavors to create a new analytical paradigm for examining popular music from the perspective of developments in contemporary art music Expanded approaches for popular music analysis is broadly defined as as exploring the pitch class structures form timbre rhythm or aesthetics of various forms of popular music in a conceptual space not limited to the domain of common practice tonality but broadened to include any applicable compositional analytical or theoretical concept that illuminates the music The essays in this collection investigate a variety of analytical theoretical historical and aesthetic commonalities popular music shares with 20th and 21st century art music From rock and pop to hip hop and rap dance and electronica from the 1930s to present day this companion explores these connections in five parts Establishing and Expanding Analytical Frameworks Technology and Timbre Rhythm Pitch and Harmony Form and Structure Critical Frameworks Analytical Formal Structural and Political With contributions by established scholars and promising emerging scholars in music theory and historical musicology from North America Europe and Australia The Routledge Companion to Popular Music Analysis Expanding Approaches offers nuanced and detailed perspectives that address the relationships between concert and popular music

We Are Who We Think We Were Aaron D. Conley, 2013-08-01 Conley calls into question the outdated historical methodologies in use in Christian social ethics and outlines the consequences stemming from them By adopting the postmodern post structuralist position of historian Elizabeth Clark Conley calls ethicists to learn to read for the gaps silences and aporias existent in historical texts as well as in the histories represented by them The book calls ethicists to a critical self reflexive historiography This self criticism allows the ability to construct new histories and formulate new ethical norms for the world in which we now live

Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski, 2001-07-19 This book is designed to introduce readers to the language of contemporary rhetorical studies The book format is an alphabetized glossary with appropriate cross listings of key terms and concepts in contemporary rhetorical studies An introductory chapter outlines the definitional ambiguities of the central concept of rhetoric itself The primary emphasis is on the contemporary tradition of rhetorical studies as it has emerged in the discipline of speech communication Each entry in the glossary ranges in length from a few paragraphs to a short essay of a few pages Where appropriate examples are provided to further illustrate the term or concept Each entry will be accompanied by a list of references and additional readings to direct the reader to other materials of possible interest

Text, Extratext, Metatext and Paratext in Translation Valerie Pellatt, 2014-01-08 This volume brings together research on a variety of paratextual and peritextual elements of translation of German Chinese and Czech source texts The explication seen as necessary to translated texts is a part of this growing field as researchers investigate the influence of writing which purports to help the reader's understanding of a text The articles included here demonstrate the impact of paratextual and peritextual elements on the way a text is produced and received Publishers both consciously and unconsciously may manipulate the presentation of a text to appeal to a certain readership while writers of prefatorial explanatory and critical material base their paratextual interpretation on their own perceptions and political leanings The articles in the volume focus on significant literary texts by writers such as Christa Wolf and Mao Zedong Regional novels of Taiwan modern and traditional poetry and children's stories are not exempt from the power of paratext and some genres such as the literary mystification texts published in the Czech Republic are purposefully designed to mislead the reader The articles in the volume help to dispel the notion that translation and the paratext which surrounds it and of which it is a part are innocent

How to Read Texts Neil McCaw, 2013-09-26 Now in its second edition How to Read Texts introduces students to key critical approaches to literary texts and offers a practical introduction for students developing their own critical and close reading skills Written in a lively jargon free style it explains critical concepts approaches and ideas including Debates around critical theory The role of history and context The links between creativity and criticism The relationship between author reader and text The new edition now includes guidance on analysing a range of multi media texts including film and online media as well as the purely literary In addition to new practical examples readings exercises and checkpoints that help students to build confidence in their own critical readings of both primary and secondary texts the book now also offers guidance on writing fully formed critical essays and tips for independent research Comprehensively updated and revised throughout How to Read Texts is an indispensable guide for students making the transition to university study

After the Fall Noemi Marin, 2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Siavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance Pauline Letters: Texts @ Contexts Menghun Goh,2024-02-08 In this volume contributors from various social locations in North America Asia Europe and Australia analyse and interpret Pauline letters Engaging both the biblical text and the lives and contexts from different sociocultural religious methodological perspectives each contributor demonstrates the dynamic interaction between text and context in their understanding and explanation of the text The first part of the volume highlights the hermeneutical focus in interpretation That is how a certain chosen worldview e g Lutheran liturgical worldview affects one's decision in prioritizing a certain textual dimension and level instead of others Part Two elucidates how even a technical analysis of the text e g epistolography is context oriented Part Three shows how such a contemporary contextual interpretation is also an intercontextual and intertextual interpretation that entails intersectional and global local experiences The Reception of Jane Austen and Walter Scott Annika Bautz,2007-06-09 Of all the great novelists of the Romantic period only two Jane Austen and Walter Scott have been continuously reprinted admired argued about and read from the moment their works first appeared until the present day In a pioneering study Annika Bautz traces how Scott's nineteenth century success among all classes of readers made him the most admired and most widely read novelist in history only for his readership to plummet sharply downwards in the twentieth century Austen's popularity by contrast has risen inexorably overtaking Scott's and bringing about a reversal in reputation that would have been unthinkable in the authors own time To assess the reactions of readers belonging to diverse interpretative communities Bautz draws on a wide range of indicators including editions publisher's relaunche sales reviews library catalogues and lending figures private comments in diaries and letters popularisations She maps out the long run changes in the reception of each author over two centuries explaining literary tastes and their determinants and illuminating the broader culture of the successive reading audiences who gave both authors their uninterrupted loyalty The first ever comparative longitudinal study firmly based on empirical and archival evidence this book will be of interest to scholars in Romanticism Victorianism book history reading and reception studies and cultural history How the Light Gets In Graham Ward,2016-02-25 How the Light Gets In Ethical

Life I presents a systematic account of the teachings of the Christian faith to offer a vision from a human created and limited perspective of the ways all things might be understood from the divine perspective It explores how Christian doctrine is lived and the way in which beliefs are not simply cognitive sets of ideas but embodied cultural practices Christians learn how to understand the contents of their faith learn the language of the faith through engagements that are simultaneously somatic affective imaginative and intellectual In the first of four volumes Graham Ward examines the complex levels of these engagements through three historical developments in the systematic organization of doctrine the Creeds the Summa and Protestant dogmatics He outlines a methodology for exploring and practicing systematic theology that captures how the faith is lived in cultural social and embodied engagements Ward then unpicks several fundamental theological concepts and how they are to be understood from the point of view of an engaged systematics truth revelation judgement discernment proclamation faith seeking understanding and believing as it relates to and grounds the possibilities for faith This groundbreaking work offers an interdisciplinary investigation through poetry art film the Bible and theological discourse analysing the human condition and theology as the deep dream for salvation The final part relates theology as a lived and ongoing pedagogy concerned with individual and corporate formation to biological life social life and life in Christ Here an approach to living theologically is sketched that is the primary focus for all four volumes ethical life National Liberation
