Pour Un Nouveau Droit International De La Concurrence:

Pour un nouveau droit international de la concurrence Ali Cenk Keskin,2010-01-01 La mondialisation des changes constitue un défi pour les politiques de la concurrence encore fondées sur l'Etat nation. En dissociant le territoire où elles sont décidées de l'espace géographique où elles produisent leurs effets, elles rendent l'application des instruments internes de contrôle compliquent les stratégies commerciales des entreprises. La possibilité de négocier un accord international sur le droit de la concurrence dans un cadre plurilatéral dont l'OMC serait le principal cadre institutionnel est vaine. Nouveau droit international public Pasquale Fiore,1885 Nouveau droit international public suivant les besoins de la civilisation moderne par Pasquale Fiore Pasquale Fiore,1885 Recueil Des Cours Academie de Droit International,1998-06-03 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of public and private international law and related subjects. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law. This volume contains Souveraineté territoriale et globalisation des marchés: le domaine d'application des lois contre les restrictions de la concurrence par J. BASEDOW, professeur à l'Université libre de Berlin. The number of national laws that protect competition against private restrictions are constantly increasing. Their application to transboundary situations poses difficult problems for both private international law and public international law. The course deals with both either with respect to application of the lex fori or with respect to application of foreign laws. Enforcement in the International Context by K. D. KERAMEUS, Professor at the University of Athens. In recent years enforcement proceedings have gone through a comprehensive reform in many countries. Furthermore, modern enforcement increasingly relies on foreign judgments. The course focuses on three subjects: the comparative element in recent codifications and case law; developments in the area of enforcement; salient and converging trends in the enforcement of foreign judgments on the basis of domestic law or international conventions; and the delimitation of lex fori and foreign law during the enforcement proceedings. Theory of International Law at the Threshold of the 21st Century Jerzy Makarczyk,2023-09-14 Theory of International Law at the Threshold of the 21st Century is a remarkable book and is destined to become a standard work without which no International Law library will be complete. The essays contained in this volume are written by the foremost experts and the topics have been chosen with the greatest care to reflect the most pressing current problems facing the world community. The research and writing made available in this collection will be of enduring worth and will be studied and quoted for decades to come. It follows in the finest traditions of the major collective works published by Martinus Nijhoff/Kluwer Law.

International It is most appropriate that a remarkable book should be dedicated to a remarkable man and the editor of the volume Professor Jerzy Makarczyk has ensured that the choice of writers the choice of topics and the quality of the material do indeed honour one of the leading international lawyers of his generation Professor Krzysztof Skubiszewski Hague Yearbook of International Law: Vol. 4: Annuaire de La Haye de Droit International 1991 Johan G. Lammers, A. C. Kiss, 1992-10-23 This is the fourth volume of the Hague Yearbook of International Law which succeeds the Yearbook of the Association of Attenders and Alumni of the Hague Academy of International Law The title Hague Yearbook of International Law reflects the close ties which have always existed between the AAA and the City of The Hague with its international law institutions and indicated the Editors Intention to devote attention to developments taking place in those international law institutions viz the International Court of Justice the Permanent Court of Arbitration the Iran United States Claims Tribunal and the Hague Conference on Private International Law This volume contains in depth articles on these developments and summaries of aspects of decisions rendered by the International Court of Justice the Permanent Court of Arbitration and the Iran United States Claims Tribunal In addition the 1991 volume contains the papers of the Thirty fourth AAA Congress held in Montreal on Regional Economic Integration and Property Rights in International Law E Pluribus Unum: Liber Amicorum Georges A.L. Droz - on the Progressive Unification of Private International Law Georges Droz, Alegría Borrás, Andreas Bucher, Michel Verwilghen, Teun Struycken, 1996-06-07 The unification of Private International Law is a goal to which all the contributors to this impressive volume have committed themselves and one which seems increasingly to attract the attention of legal practitioners researchers writers and legislators The essays give a unique overview of the current state of the law with respect to those areas which have been unified or which are susceptible to unification Insights are given into national as well as international practice and theoretical aspects have not been neglected the case law of the international court Edvard Hambro, Jan Douma, 1952 Boundaries of European Private International Law Jean-Sylvestre Bergé, Stéphanie Francq, Miguel Gardenes Santiago, 2015-04-22 European private international law is by now based mainly on a large body of uniform rules such as the Regulations Rome I Rome II Brussels I Brussels I bis This significant legislative output however does not take place in a vacuum Rules of private international law have been earlier and still are adopted at national international and even European level in scattered regulations and directives The recent plethora of private international law rules gives rise to issues of delineation and calls for some sort of ordering as gaps overlaps and contradictions become flagrant At the same time the resulting interactions can offer new insight ideas and even opportunities at a more theoretical level This book gathers a collection of essays resulting out of a series of international seminars held in Lyon Barcelona and Louvain la Neuve During those seminars young researchers selected in an open call for papers had the opportunity to discuss their views among themselves as well as with various specialists of the field such as more senior academics EU civil servants national experts and representatives of other international organisations The book offers the fresh views of those who will in the future shape the dialectic between the various sources of private international law and attempts to launch a discussion on the living together of legal sources Two ranges of topics are addressed in the book firstly the relationship between EU private international law and national law substantial and procedural and or international law international instruments of private international law or of uniform substantive law and secondly the relationship between EU private international law and other aspects of EU law internal market rules of primary law harmonisation through secondary law and other pieces of legislation enacted in the realm of the area of freedom security and justice

Revue de droit international et de législation comparée ,1924 Académie de Droit International de La Haye Académie de Droit International Law,2005-05 The Academy is a prestigious international institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects The work of the Hague Academy receives the support and recognition of the UN Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law

EC Private Antitrust Enforcement Assimakis Komninos,2008-02-22 This book written by an academic cum practitioner with substantial experience in the field of antitrust enforcement presents the rise of private enforcement of competition law in Europe especially in the context of the recent modernisation and decentralisation of EC competition law enforcement In particular the study examines the role of courts in the application of the EC competition rules and views that role in the broader system of antitrust enforcement The author starts from the premise of private enforcement s independence of public enforcement and after examining the new institutional position of national courts and their relationship with the Court of Justice the Commission and public enforcement in general proceeds to deal with the detailed substantive and procedural law framework of private antitrust actions in Europe The author describes the current post decentralisation state of affairs but also refers to the latest proposals to enhance private antitrust enforcement in Europe both at the Community level where reference is made to the December 2005 Commission Green Paper on Damages Actions and its aftermath and at the national level where reference is made to recent and forthcoming relevant initiatives

The Interplay between European and National Competition Law after Regulation 1/2003 Lúcio Tomé Feteira,2015-12-08 If we can speak of the European Community s economic constitution we can assert that competition rules together with free movement rules form its core Notably implementation of the competition rules enshrined in Articles 81 and 82 EC changed radically with the enactment of Regulation 1 2003 which in effect dispensed with mandatory prior notifications and allowed national authorities to apply Article 101 3 TFEU directly Given that national legislations perceive certain types of unilateral conduct even if adopted by a non dominant undertaking as a potential source of anticompetitive effects an important question concerns the leeway enjoyed by national authorities under the exception to the convergence rule in Article 3 2 of Regulation 1 2003 and the consequent effect on both legal practice and policy issues In this lucidly argued book focusing on national competition provisions in Germany France Italy and the United Kingdom that deal with such conduct the author provides a detailed examination of how such considerations as the following are affected by Regulation 1 2003 prohibition of abuse of economic dependence or superior bargaining power the particular susceptibility of long term contracts prohibition of resale at a loss or below cost prohibition of boycott unlawful pressures threats and other coercive tactics adopted by undertakings and the role of unfair competition law The analysis follows a functional method of comparative legal analysis reviewing the most relevant norms in the selected jurisdictions particularly in what concerns their goals and function in the context of their respective legal systems Special attention is paid to two specific sectors the motor vehicle and the retailing industries which have most often triggered relevant legislation and case law in the jurisdictions covered Legal scholarship in the field is also drawn upon In its clarification of the meaning of Regulation 1 2003 this book allows practitioners to fully grasp its scope The author s thorough masterful analysis of the statutory framework of Article 3 of the regulation also reveals the variety of reasons why different Member States have different competition policies on the scope of the exception to the rule of convergence and in this way provides lawyers policymakers and academics with welcome insights on how major EU jurisdictions apply European competition law

History of Design and Design Law Tsukasa Aso, Christoph Rademacher, Jonathan Dobinson, 2022-04-22 For the first time this book provides an up to date history of product design and product design law covering 17 countries Japan Korea China Singapore the United Kingdom Germany France Italy the Nordic countries Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden Russia the United States Brazil and Australia selected for their innovative or influential approach to design or design protection Each country is the subject of two chapters one on the history of design and the other on the history of design law authored by experts in design and intellectual property IP law This unique interdisciplinary approach explains why and how various national design protection systems that can include design copyright trade mark competition and civil laws developed making it an ideal book for students researchers and lawyers The book also serves as an international survey of different national policy and legal responses to historical developments and specific design and legal issues allowing readers to consider their advantages and disadvantages and so is also recommended for policy and law makers as well as organizations that administer IP rights Topics include the subject matter of design protection procedural and substantive requirements design registration infringement and the overlap of design rights and other IP rights The chapters on design history provide further context to the historical development of these legal concepts by considering major design movements key designers and iconic designs and the current state of design The chapters highlight the connected and often complementary relationship between the two histories not only for each country but at the regional and international level often as a result of government policies trade colonialism immigration and globalisation Design and design practice continue to become more global and evolve with developments in technology At the same time design laws are not internationally harmonized and continue to develop at the national level with a number of significant changes occurring in recent years This timely book shows how the lessons of the past continue to inform the future direction of design and the legal systems developed to protect it Triatie de droit international public Paul Fauchille,1925 Traité de droit international public Paul Fauchille,1925 Recueil Des Cours, Collected Courses 1928 Academie De Droit International De La Ha,1968-12-01 Liber Amicorum Judge Mohammed Bedjaoui Emile K. Yakpo,Tahar Boumedra,1999-05-01 This Liber Amicorum was written by prominent colleagues and friends of the President of the International Court of Justice Judge Mohammed Bedjaoui in honour of his 70th birthday and in celebration of a lifelong career devoted to the promotion of international law The contributors are each and every one the most outstanding professors and thinkers in their field and the range of topics reflects a broad scope of current thought and theory in international law The book is divided into a general introductory part on the life and times of Judge Bedjaoui followed by four sections Section One is on General International Law featuring a range of articles from environmental treaties to the role of the United Nations Section Two is devoted to the International Court of Justice and includes analyses of the role and procedure of the ICJ Section Three contains an interesting selection of articles in the field of Human Rights from self determination to the concept of universality Section Four addresses a miscellanea of international legal questions especially those related to international organizations The contributions are in both English and French
