timely The Times London global history of witch trials across Europe Africa and the Americas told through thirteen distinct trials that illuminate a pattern of demonization and conspiratorial thinking that has profoundly shaped human history This inventive and compelling The Times Literary Supplement London work of social history travels through thirteen witch trials across history some famous like the Salem witch trials and some lesser known on Vard island Norway in the 1620s where an indigenous Sami woman was accused of murder in France in 1731 during the country's last witch trial where a young woman was pitted against her confessor and cult leader in Lesotho in 1948 where British colonial authorities executed local leaders Exploring how witchcraft was feared then decriminalized and then reimagined as gendered persecution Witchcraft takes on the intersections between gender and power indigenous spirituality and colonial rule political conspiracy and individual resistance Offering a striking dramatic journey unspooling over centuries and across continents Witchcraft is a well rounded insight into some of the strangest and cruelest moments in history Buzz Magazine giving voice to those who have been silenced by history
