Robin Hood And His Sherwood Hoodies:

A Case Study of a School's Application of Appreciative Inquiry, Soar, and Strengths-Based Practices as Seen in a Range of Educational Projects Marie Bramley, Professor David Giles, 2022-10-21 There is no doubt that we live in a world experiencing unprecedented changes It is not surprising that our conversation can have a sense of hopelessness Easy solutions appear to be few and far between What is needed in schools is a new discourse that is hope full appreciative strengths based and relational This book reports on an innovative life centric design for the professional development of senior leaders within a primary elementary school in New Zealand The design involved an Appreciative Inquiry approach a SOAR strategy and strengths based outcomes The chapters are organised around leaders self selected innovative and appreciative inquiries which included an external mentor and writing retreats Each chapter provides a teacher s narrative on their inquiry decision making application of the life centric design and the development of emergent and enduring understandings The AI SOAR strategy has been applied to school wide matters such as the development of a new bicultural school vision statement Growing creative learners from within The Mori translation is Kia puwai te ngkau This translation evokes an image of learners harnessing that which is within their innermost being and letting that flourish This book strongly advocates for the greater application of Appreciative Inquiry SOAR and strengths based aspirations in schools
