Audience and Purpose	The style of the writing may be limited or mostly unsuitable, with some evidence of awareness of reader.	Style is mostly suitable, but may be lacking in correct formality. Some writing is for the correct purpose.	Style is adapted to the audience mostly successfully. Purpose is clear and audience interest is maintained throughout.	Confident and successful use of style to inform and interest the reader, keeping them engaged and creating an emotional response.
Text Structure and Paragraphs	Writing is mainly in one chunk and may be limited in length. The text may refer to lots of different topics in one paragraph. Short sentences that are mainly simple and not always constructed accurately.	There is some attempt to organise content into sections. Generally works towards a conclusion, but may be unclear in places. Mostly simple sentences, perhaps with some connectives such as 'and', 'but', 'so'.	Clearly paragraphed with ideas organised into sections. There may be some links between paragraphs through the use of connectives. Sentence types are varied and sometimes ambitious, including more sophisticated constructions such as adverbials.	Paragraphing is controlled to create effect, e.g. a one-word or one-sentence paragraph for effect. Writing is organised to manipulate the reader or reveal information in a powerful way. Control of a variety of sentence types is evident with a variety of subordination to create effect.
Content	Ideas are mostly appropriate but may be quite limited. There is some attempt to create interest.	Ideas are beginning to develop with some additional information given to develop the viewpoint, but may be unambitious.	Ideas are appropriate and developed imaginatively in places. There may be some provocative use of linguistic techniques to create effect.	Imaginative, interesting and controlled ideas; able to manipulate voice and change register convincingly.
