A. Forbes, 2017-06-28 Monsignor Blanc a Marist missionary in Oceania wrote thus to his clergy after an audience with Pius X My attention was completely captivated by his expression and his eyes I could not tell you what the room was like nor what the Holy Father wore I could see nothing but those eyes and the light of them I shall never forget He made me sit beside him and I spoke of our people our natives the country that I love If the life of the missionary is sometimes hard let us remember that the pope has said the missions are my great consolation He was full of interest in all I had to tell him of your work your zeal and your devotedness I spoke of our schools and he was delighted Tell them to devote themselves there without counting the cost he said it is the most important thing of all With touching graciousness and cordiality he gave his blessing to you to our people to all for whom I asked it You cannot go near him without loving him said another priest his kindness and sweetness are irresistible Father Boevey Crawley a South American priest and an ardent apostle of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus went to Rome to obtain the pope's blessing on his mission His story was a strange one Attacked while quite young by a serious form of heart disease he was sent to Paris to consult a specialist The American doctors had told him that he had but a few months to live the Paris specialist confirmed their verdict Father Crawley had an overwhelming devotion to the Sacred Heart and to St Margaret Mary He went straight to Paray le Monial to ask through her intercession the grace of a holy death Scarcely had he knelt in the chapel when he felt himself shaken from head to foot He was cured That night while kneeling in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament he received a divine intimation that he was to go forth and conquer the world family by family to love the Sacred Heart To preach love was henceforward to be his mission for what is devotion to the Sacred Heart but love of the love of Christ

 Vian, 2010-11-01 Preface This Pocket Manual of Canon Law is a digest of the entire Code It contains all that the average priest should know more than our Sisterhoods need to know and much that will interest the laity on the laws of the Church On most subjects the points of the law are scattered through the Code By gathering these points under their respective heads and arranging them in alphabetical order with reference to canon paragraph and number in the Code this manual aims to be a clear intelligent counsellor in the ordinary affairs of Catholic life and a ready index to the Code for questions that require a knowledge of the niceties of ecclesiastical law This is a crucial book for any layman or future seminarian wanting to dive into the more deeper parts of canon law The definitions are not overwhelming hard to understand That are written simple and to the point On the more important definitions such as baptism and marriage are more detailed because they are the foundations of the Catholic faith The dictionary of Canon law was written by Rev P Trudel S S This book was written in the late 1910 s It has 606 definitions ranging from abbot to jurisdiction to vows Here are typical definitions Abstinence The law of abstinence forbids the eating of flesh meat and of broth made from meat 1250 It binds all who have completed their seventh year 1254 It is to be observed on all Fridays of the year on Wednesdays and Saturdays of Lent and on the Vigils of Pentecost Assumption All Saints and Christmas 1252 1 2 If one of these vigils falls on Sunday or if a holy day falls on Friday the law of abstinence ceases It also ceases at noon on Holy Saturday 1252 4 Jurisdiction for Confessions Besides the power of orders jurisdiction is necessary to give absolution 872 The Pope and the Cardinals have this jurisdiction for the whole Church the Ordinaries in their dioceses and the pastors and those who take their place in the parish 873 Delegated jurisdiction is given to priests by the Ordinary 874 This delegation must be expressed in words or given in writing 879 It may be limited 878 1 To hear the confession of religious women and novices validly and licitly in their homes special delegation by the Ordinary is required 876 When once granted it should not be recalled excepting for grave reason 880 All priests have faculties to absolve persons in danger of death 882 Every priest approved by his Ordinary or by the Ordinary of the place of embarkation or of any Ordinary along the voyage is approved to hear confessions on the boat while making a voyage or at any port his boat enters 883 A priest who would dare to hear confessions without jurisdiction would thereby incur suspension and one who with jurisdiction would dare to absolve from reserved sins would thereby be suspended from hearing confessions 2366 Confession Sacramental Sacramental confession is necessary for mortal sins committed since the reception of baptism that have not yet been forgiven in a good confession 901 Mortal sins that have been forgiven and venial sins may be confessed 902 Religious and seminarians should go to confession at least once a week 595 1 3 1367 2 To gain the indulgence of some feast the prescribed confession may be made eight days preceding the feast 931 1 Anyone in mortal Sill must go to confession before receiving Holy Communion 856 celebrating Mass 807 or being married 1033 The confession must be made to a duly authorized priest of any rite 905 but in danger of death it may be validly and licitly made to a priest not approved even when a duly authorized priest is present 882 Novices and seminarians should not confess to their master socius or rector 891 1383 Confession may be made through an interpreter 903 Pius X., Pope [1835-1914]., 1914 LIFE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE PIUS Joseph 1876- Schmidlin, Anton De 1836-1977 Waal, 2016-08-29 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Mortu [sic] Proprio of Pope Pius X, Dated June 29, 1910 Catholic Church.
