Post Communist Transition And Women S Agency In Eastern Europe:

Post-Communist Transition and Women's Agency in Eastern Europe Cynthia Simmons, 2014 The exigencies of post communist transition have no doubt affected women s lives enormously the rise e g in human trafficking in Eastern Europe Contributions to this volume address this and other challenges posed by the resultant gender gap in poverty in the region Yet other articles chronicle the heritage of communism in the Soviet Union which despite the double burden of challenging professional work and daunting domestic responsibilities provided women with education and expectations that ensured for some a successful if still difficult transition to democratic rule and a market economy This at times paradoxical situation is investigated under the rubrics of History and Commemoration Women in Post Soviet Russia The Soviet Heritage Beyond the Border and Revelations in Women s Narratives

Contemporary Women's Movements in Hungary Katalin Fábíán, 2009-10-14 As the first and only book in any language on contemporary women s movements in Hungary this groundbreaking study focuses on the role of women s activism in a society where women are not yet adequately represented by established parties and political institutions Drawing on eyewitness accounts of meetings and protests as well as first person interviews with leading female activists Katalin Fábíán examines the interactions between women s groups in Hungary and studies the unique brand of democracy they have forged in postcommunist Eastern Europe Through her analysis she demonstrates how democratization and globalization with their attendant range of challenges and opportunities have led women to redefine public private divides

Facets of Russian Irrationalism between Art and Life, 2016-04-08 Russia is an enigmatic mysterious country situated between East and West not only spatially but also mentally Or so it is traditionally perceived in Western Europe and the Anglophone world at large One of the distinctive features of Russian culture is its irrationalism which revealed itself diversely in Russian life and thought literature music and visual arts and has survived to the present day Bridging the gap in existing scholarship the current volume is an attempt at an integral and multifaceted approach to this phenomenon and launches the study of Russian irrationalism in philosophy theology literature and the arts of the last two hundred years together with its reflections in Russian reality Contributors Tatiana Chumakova David Gillespie Arkadii Goldenberg Kira Gordovich Rainer Gröbel Elizabeth Harrison Jeremy Howard Aleksandr Ivashkin Elena Kabkova Sergei Kibal'nik Oleg Kovalov Alexander McCabe Barbara Olaszek Oliver Ready Oliver Smith Margarita Odesskaia Ildik Mária Racz Lyudmila Safronova Marilyn Schwinn Smith Henrieke Stahl Olga Stukalova Olga Tabachnikova Christopher John Tooke and Natalia Vinokurova

The Eastern Front in European Memory Xosé M. Núñez Seixas, 2025-09-18 This is the first comprehensive study to examine the place of the Eastern Front or Soviet German War in European memory from a truly comparative perspective across Europe it encompasses the Soviet and post Soviet space Germany both GDR and FRG and the Berlin Republic after 1990 Western Europe and Finland Covering the whole post war period to the present with a particular emphasis on recent events this book offers a cultural perspective on the different ways in which the politics of memory dictated by states interact with and are sometimes counteracted by grass roots memory initiatives The Eastern Front in European Memory focuses on a diversity of sources and agents of memory from monuments and public ceremonies to literary narratives films and other aspects of popular culture that contribute to shaping the historical culture of the societies concerned

The Palgrave Handbook of Women and Gender in Twentieth-Century Russia and the Soviet Union

Melanie Ilic, 2017-11-30 This handbook brings together recent and emerging research in the broad areas of women and gender studies focusing on pre revolutionary Russia the Soviet Union and the post Soviet Russian Federation For the Soviet period in particular individual chapters extend the geographic coverage of the book beyond Russia itself to examine women and gender relations in the Soviet East Tatarstan Central Asia Kazakhstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan and the Baltic States Estonia Latvia and Lithuania Within the boundaries of the Russian Federation the scope moves beyond the typically studied urban centres of Moscow and St Petersburg to examine the regions Krasnodar Novosibirsk rural societies and village life Its chapters examine the construction of gender identities and shifts in gender roles during the twentieth century as well as the changing status and roles of women vis a vis men in Soviet political institutions the workplace and society more generally This volume draws on a broad range of disciplinary and methodological approaches currently being employed in the academic field of Russian studies The origins of the individual contributions can be identified in a range of conventional subject disciplines history literature sociology political science cultural studies but the chapters also adopt a cross and inter disciplinary approach to the topic of study This handbook therefore builds on and extends the foundations of Russian women s and gender studies as it has emerged and developed in recent decades and demonstrate the international indeed global reach of such research

The New Yugoslav Woman Branka Bogdan, 2025-09-30 From 1945 to 1989 the Yugoslav state connected its claims of progressive politics and gender equality to its support of free healthcare sex education and contraception and laws that supported reproductive choice Yugoslav men and women internalized these messages proclaiming their homeland s superior care for its citizens in comparison to postwar Europe and the United States Even as Yugoslav women faced stigma and abuse for their usage of contraceptives and medical practitioners grappled with new regulations and technology alongside personal ideologies Yugoslavs celebrated their own reformation into new politically minded citizens who carefully navigated tradition and modernity as they reconstructed the nation The New Yugoslav Woman provides a social and cultural history of how Yugoslav communists used reproductive regulation to build a platform of socialism through self management and to position the country as a conduit between the global North and South Author Branka Bogdan traces reproduction as a central facet of socialist Yugoslavia s state formation through the nation s laws medical infrastructure technological growth and state run sex education programs Bringing this history to the present day with a discussion of more than two dozen interviews with Yugoslav patients and medical professionals Bogdan reveals how these recollections show key continuities with the past rather than an abrupt break between the socialist and post socialist worlds Drawing Yugoslavian women's experiences into the geopolitical history of reproduction and the Cold War era state The New Yugoslav Woman reveals the centrality of reproduction contraception and abortion to socialist Yugoslavia's self conception as the developed leader of the developing world Women and Citizenship in Central and Eastern Europe Jasmina Lukić, Joanna Regulska, Darja Zaviršek, 2006 The essays debate women's active citizenship in Central and Eastern Europe in light of transformations in the region since the fall of communism at the end of the 1980s Case studies show that social and political discrimination between genders still exists Theorising Transition John Pickles, Adrian Smith, 1998 Contains 20 essays which discuss the differing forms of capitalism emerging in former socialist economies Examines inter alia industrial restructuring social and political movements and agrarian reform and social transformations Handbook on Politics and Society Shireen Hassim, Anna C. Korteweg, 2025-06-09 This ground breaking Handbook decentres theories of social and political arrangements originating from parochial histories of Europe and North America Connecting the politics of race class sexuality and gender it provides critical perspectives on capitalism states and political mobilisation and adopts an interdisciplinary approach to key contemporary issues in politics and society Life in Post-communist Eastern Europe After EU Membership Donnacha Ó Beacháin, Vera Sheridan, Sabina Stan, 2012 This book examines how membership of the European Union has affected life in the ten former communist countries of Central and Eastern Europe that are now members of the European Union It attempts to answer some fundamental questions Was the reward of EU membership worth the sacrifices made How have the new member states fared Has the promise of EU membership on which so many expectations were based been realised Or have the new member states traded a Socialist Commonwealth with Moscow pulling the strings for an over centralised Brussels bureaucracy that lacks transparency and accountability How has a shared communist past influenced the countries post socialist and post accession trajectory How have the populations of post communist Europe fared Have some done better than others Are these divergences confined to the political economic or social spheres or to more than one If there have been disappointments how have the populations reacted to these By taking stock of debates within domestic elites popular opinion non governmental organisations civil society and external actors this book seeks to answer these crucial questions Eastern Europe since 1945 Geoffrey Swain, Nigel Swain, 2017-10-26 An established introductory textbook that provides students with an engaging overview of the complex developments in Eastern Europe from the end of the Second World War through to the present Tracing the origins of the socialist experiment de Stalinisation and the transition from socialism to capitalism it explores the key events in each nation's recent history This is an ideal core text for dedicated modules on Eastern European History or Europe since 1945 including Central Europe and the Balkans or a supplementary text for broader modules on Modern European History or European Political History which may be offered at all levels of an undergraduate history politics or European studies degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying the recent history of Eastern Europe for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in Modern European history European politics or European studies New to this Edition A fully revised new edition of an established text updated throughout to incorporate the latest research Provides coverage of recent events Offers increased focus on social and cultural history with greater emphasis on everyday life and experiences in Eastern Europe Women's Citizenship and Political Rights S. Hellsten,A. Holli,K. Daskalova,2005-11-29 Combining research theory and practice pan European perspectives and the disciplines of human rights sociology and politics this book offers a rare insight into the multiplicity of issues surrounding women s equality citizenship and political rights in transitional Europe and an expanding European Union From policy making to civil rights domestic violence and education experienced authors present innovative research analysis and suggestions for the future of women as participants in an evolving Europe

Central and East European Politics Zsuzsa Csergo,Daina S. Eglitis,Paula M. Pickering,2021-06-22 Now in a fully revised and updated edition this essential text provides a comprehensive introduction to Central and Eastern Europe including the Baltics and Ukraine Broad but nuanced it offers a reader friendly overview of the globally and regionally significant changes and challenges the region faces Divided into two parts the book first presents thematic chapters on key issues including nationalism and challenges to democratic institutions and practices the contentious politics of memory debates over demography and migration in a region with a shrinking population and Russian efforts to retain regional influence through hard and soft power The case study chapters that follow highlight key political developments after communism as well as providing a strong foundation for readers on regional history and the political and economic experiences of the communist years Each covers the foundational topics of political history political competition economic development social problems relationships with European institutions and threats to good governance For students and specialists alike this book will be an invaluable resource on this dynamic region of Europe The Anthropology of East Europe Review ,2000

Citizenship in an Enlarging Europe B. Einhorn,2006-06-06 Citizenship in an Enlarging Europe considers the impact of economic political and social transformation in Central and Eastern Europe in the context of EU enlargement The author uses the lens of gender to examine the processes of democratization marketization and nationalism Work, Employment and Transition Al Rainnie,Adrian Smith,Adam Swain,2005-07-28 Since the late 1980s the experiences of work and employment in the former communist world have been profoundly transformed Work Employment and Transition brings together a series of essays by leading international scholars which highlights the varied and complex forms that work and employment restructuring are taking in the post soviet world and makes important theoretical contributions to our understanding of these transformations Advertising, Sex, and Post-Socialism Elza Ibroscheva,2013-06-20 Advertising Sex and Post Socialism explores the role of advertising and the consumption it promotes in changing cultural perceptions of sex and femininity across the Balkan region Elza Ibroscheva theorizes how the marketing of gender identities that has taken place in the years of post socialist transition has fundamentally affected the social economic and political positioning of women Advertising is one of the major factories of cultural signification and as such serves as the most ubiquitous vessel of global norms of gendered selves In addition advertising serves as a literacy tool for learning the grammar of consumption studying the ideologies of femininity and sex before and after the collapse of the socialist project as well as the prevailing portrayals of femininity in advertising in present day Bulgaria This book provides a revealing look at the mechanisms of how post socialist norms of sexual behavior are being engendered and what role media play in this transformative process

Gender, Institutions and Political Representation Cristina Chiva, 2017-11-21 This book traces the struggles over the institutions of political representation in Central and Eastern Europe focusing on the factors that have held women back over the post communist period as well as on the growing evidence for change throughout the region Post communist Europe has long raised two puzzles for scholars of women s representation in politics First why have women been under represented in politics in every country in the region since communism s collapse Secondly why are there relatively few cases where women s advocates have been successful in pressing for change This comparative study of Europe s new democracies argues that these puzzles are best understood as questions about male dominance that is about the mechanisms that sustain or alternatively change long established patterns of male over representation in politics over time The author covers six EU member states Bulgaria the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Romania and Slovakia during the period 1990-2016 The book will be of use to students and scholars in the fields of Comparative Politics Democracy and Democratization European Studies Gender Studies Post Communist Studies and Central and Eastern European Studies Transitional Justice in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union Lavinia Stan, 2009-01-13 This book examines transitional justice in Eastern Europe and the former USSR exploring their attempts to come to terms with the gross human abuses which characterized their communist past It considers transitional justice in all its aspects explaining why different countries adopted different models and how successful they have been Building Democracy in Contemporary Russia Sarah Henderson, 2003 Can foreign donors help build new democracies In the 1990s public and private organizations such as USAID and the Soros Foundation poured huge amounts of money and expertise into Russia to help build the dream of a vibrant democratic society Sarah L Henderson argues that despite the altruistic intentions of foreign assistance agencies and domestic activists foreign aid designed to spur civic growth has had unintended consequences Drawing on extensive field work survey research and work experience for several funding agencies in Moscow in the late 1990s Henderson focuses on donor efforts to support the emerging community of nongovernmental organizations and in particular on efforts to build a functioning women s movement in Russia Her intimate knowledge of Russia s growing NGO community informs a worrisome finding foreign aid has made a tremendous difference but not in altogether expected or positive ways New Russian civic groups serve either the needs of an indigenous clientele or the demands of the foreign aid bureaucracy but rarely both Henderson s research and experience show that while aid has kept a fledgling civic community alive it is a civic community that is disconnected from its own domestic audience The book suggests that large flows of foreign aid have in some ways damaged the long term prospects for democratization in Russia
