Post Office Guide ... ,1911 Achieving Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa,Denver A.

Webb,2024-08-20 South Africa s higher education sector is rooted in the country s divided past A significant State driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005 In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy public statements and practices The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar A cross section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values based university on a journey to become something else In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go Accessing Post-School Studies Venica McGhie,2017-12-01 This publication makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and Saeljoe The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa ,2009 Information Resources in

Toxicology P.J. Bert Hakkinen,Asish Mohapatra,Steven G. G. Gilbert,2009-08-19 This latest version of Information Resources in Toxicology IRT continues a tradition established in 1982 with the publication of the first edition in presenting an extensive itemization review and commentary on the information infrastructure of the field This book is a unique wide ranging international annotated bibliography and compendium of major resources in toxicology and allied fields such as environmental and occupational health chemical safety and risk assessment Thoroughly updated the current edition analyzes technological changes and is rife with online tools and links to Web sites IRT IV is highly structured providing easy access to its information Among the hot topics covered are Disaster Preparedness and Management Nanotechnology Omics the Precautionary Principle Risk Assessment and Biological Chemical and Radioactive Terrorism and Warfare are among the designated International in scope with contributions from over 30 countries Numerous key references and relevant Web links Concise narratives about toxicologic sub disciplines Valuable appendices such as the IUPAC Glossary of Terms in Toxicology Authored by experts in their respective sub disciplines within toxicology PC Mag ,1999-06-08 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology Australian National Bibliography ,1996-05 Reflections of South African University Leaders: 1981 to 2014 Council on Higher Education,2016-03-17 Much has been written about the ever growing demands on university leadership worldwide in the face of increasingly complex changes and challenges from within the academy and beyond However as we are reminded by Johan Muller in the Introduction to this book there are particular features of time and place that also throw up unique problems It is precisely time and place that make this set of reflections by university leaders quite remarkable and distinguishes it from the many biographies to be found in the literature on higher education leadership In the main this collection spans two decades the 1990s and 2000s of unprecedented levels of change in South African higher education Leaders in universities as well as those responsible for higher education policy in the government and associated statutory bodies had no neat script to work off nor manuals or prescripts of good leadership or practice Instead there was palpable excitement about collectively imagining and nurturing a new post apartheid higher education system which would contribute to the social and economic development needs of the country the deepening of democracy and which would also be globally relevant Most reflections touch on the coalface of leadership which is the face to face interactional dimension dealing with staff with students with council chairs What comes through clearly is the importance of what are sometimes called people skills In these accounts this is not simply presented as a human relations aptitude for a number of reasons first of which is the special nature of universities and their occupants More than one points out the special challenge of managing the talented people that are academics and their inbuilt distaste for bureaucracy their reluctance to be managed or told what to do The message here is consistently one of needing to be completely open with academics the importance of maintaining the distinction between collegial and executive management avoiding managerialism and the critical importance of winning and holding their trust The inspiration for this collection arose in late 2013 in the Council on Higher Education s CHE Monitoring and Evaluation Directorate the directorate responsible for conducting research on the higher education landscape and monitoring the state of the sector They noted that conditions besetting universities had grown increasingly complex both globally but more especially locally and the question arose how had this altered the challenges to university leadership over the period between the new political dispensation and the second decade of the new millennium More particularly how had leaders with a proven track record of visionary and strong leadership during this period faced these challenges How did they see the main changes that needed dealing with What challenges did these changes pose and how were they successfully overcome What did they think looking back were the main constituents of successful leadership and management What wisdom could be distilled for posterity The Directorate decided to invite a range of vice chancellors and senior academic leaders who had completed their terms of office to contribute to a project that set out to gather such reflections and compile them into a publication

Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges
