Educator Supply and Demand in the South African Public Education System Education Labour Relations Council (South Africa), 2005 This report is an integration of the seven reports which emerged from the research and pulls together the findings arising from it What emerges is that the resignation death and ageing of the present educator force is likely to have a significant effect on replacement demand for educators over the next four years Rethinking commerce education in South Africa Elsabé Loots ,Johan Oberholster ,2023-04-29 This book aims to advance the knowledge on the future of business education in South Africa and to allow all relevant role players universities and industry the opportunity to debate and share ideas on how to best position business education to optimally serve the interest of students and the dynamic changes taking place in the world of work Although some of these changes have taken shape before 2020 the COVID 19 pandemic has accelerated the need and pace for change If business schools in our context faculties of economic and management sciences do not adapt rapidly they will be left behind by other up and coming industry providers The research scope covers all business related undergraduate and postgraduate economics management and accounting programmes excluding MBA programmes Higher Education in South Africa Eli Bitzer, 2009-10-01 Higher Education in South Africa should be of considerable interest to higher education researchers outside of South Africa as well as within for the general and comparative assessments it makes The South African higher education researchers included within its covers have clearly engaged with research and writing from many parts of the world which they have then applied to make sense of their own condition Malcolm Tight Lancaster University UK Quality education Muchativugwa L. Hove, Martha Matashu, 2021-11-30 This book investigates the intersections between education social justice gendered violence and human rights in South African schools and universities The rich and multifarious tapestry of scholarship and literature emanating from South African classrooms provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of the economies of education social justice imperatives gendered violence in the lives of women and children and marginalised communities The scholarship in the book challenges readers to imagine alternative futures predicated on the transformational capacity of a democratic South Africa Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which social justice and gendered violence mirror express project and articulate the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate interrogate conceptualise enact and interpret quality education The book also wrestles with the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of quality education in public and private spaces This book is essential reading for scholars seeking a solid grounding in exploring quality education the instances of epistemic disobedience the political implications of place and power and human rights in theory and practice Independent Schools Yearbook 2012-2013 none, 2013-06-20 The highly respected book of reference of sought after Independent Schools in membership of the Independent Schools Council s Associations HMC GSA

The Society of Heads IAPS ISA and COBIS      Educational Leadership in Becoming Nuraan Davids,Yusef Waghid,2016-08-25 Educational Leadership in Becoming reconsiders educational leadership in its current forms and presents a more plausible form of educational leadership to contend with the complexities currently found in universities and schools Much of the literature in vogue concerning educational leadership ranges from transactional to transformative representations of the concept in relation to educational management and policy curriculum inquiry and pedagogical action The primary aim of this book is to revisit some of the dominant understandings of educational leadership and to offer an extended view of the practice along the lines of potentiality and becoming Davids and Waghid argue that all current forms of educational leadership are insufficient to enact responsible human action particularly when it comes to addressing the combined issues of globalisation and equitable redress and transformation whether in relation to leading schools or universities The primary objective of the book is to draw on the Agambian notion of becoming in order to show that an educational leadership in becoming is better placed to not only address the myriad challenges besetting education but to also enhance the potential of leadership in action The book addresses an international audience by analysing conceptions of transformative leadership and should be read by anyone who is interested in education and educational leadership as well as the impact of neoliberal agendas on education and society It should also appeal to those interested in the philosophy of education      Islamic Schooling in the West Mohamad Abdalla,Dylan Chown,Muhammad Abdullah,2018-05-30 This book presents the views of leading scholars academics and educators on the renewal of Islamic schools in the Western context The book argues that as Islamic schools in Western contexts have negotiated the establishment phase they must next embrace a period of renewal Renewal relates to a purposeful synthesis of the tradition with contemporary educational practice and greater emphasis on empirical research substantiating best practices in Islamic schools This renewal must reflect teaching and learning practices consistent with an Islamic worldview and pedagogy It should also inform among other aspects classroom management models and relevant and contextual Islamic and Arabic studies This book acquaints the reader with contemporary challenges and opportunities in Islamic schools in the Western context with a focus on Australia      My Best Testimonies Julia Mogotsi-Mabulele, This book testifies that even in this 21st Century God is still speaking and having a relationship with his people God is sending ordinary people who have faith in him to pray help and deliver others This book is a collection of real life experiences compiled as testimonies to encourage and inspire others to build and grow their relationship with God      Artificial Intelligence and Accounting Manjit Kour,Daniel P. Schutte,2025-08-08 In the dynamic field of accounting where accuracy and productivity are critical artificial intelligence AI integration has become a game changer and AI is set to affect every industry With the speed at which technology is developing a thorough manual that helps readers understand the complex world of AI in accounting is desperately needed By offering a sophisticated grasp of how AI is changing the core ideas of accounting and financial management this book bridges this knowledge gap It explores the

Engaging in Transnational Education Karen Mpamhanga, 2025-02-28 This book offers a clear and concise introduction to transnational higher education Drawing on research current sector guidance and policy it asks critical questions about the role and nature of transnational education motivations for engaging in transnational education how transnational education is quality assured and how it might develop in the future It unpacks some of the differences in practice and their inherent complexities in an accessible way encouraging the reader to consider their own role and context Critical Practice in Higher Education is a series which provides a scholarly and practical entry point for academics into key areas of higher education practice Each book in the series explores an individual topic in depth providing an overview in relation to current thinking and practice informed by recent research The series will be of interest to those engaged in the study of higher education those involved in leading learning and teaching or working in academic development and individuals seeking to explore particular topics of professional interest Through critical engagement this series aims to promote an expanded notion of being an academic connecting research teaching scholarship community engagement and leadership while developing confidence and authority Having spent my time researching practitioner both host and overseas interactions in TNE I passionately believe that practitioner engagement and participation is fundamental to the successful delivery of any TNE initiative I am therefore delighted to endorse this book and recommend it to any practitioner who wishes to understand the phenomenon of TNE in greater detail to improve their knowledge and practice Dr C M Bordogna      Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen's capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capability scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capability scholars practitioners and policy makers      Proceedings of The 13th MAC 2018 group of authors, 2018-10-11 The 13th Multidisciplinary Academic Conference in Prague 2018 Czech Republic The 13th MAC in Prague 2018      In Different Times Ian van der Waag, Albert Grundlingh, 2019-11-15 This is the first attempt to bring together diverse scholars using different lenses to study South Africa's Border War As a book it is critical in approach provides deeper reflection and focuses specifically on the SADF experience of the war The result is a more complex picture of the war's dynamics and its legacies Although South Africa is a vastly different country today the study of the Border War opens a range of questions also relevant to contemporary deployments such as in Lesotho 1998 and the Central African Republic 2013 It includes the debate on participation in foreign conflicts on the deployment design and preparation of appropriate modern armed forces and their use as foreign policy instruments in far off theatres on military planning and as the historical controversies regarding the battles at Cuito Cuanavale and Bangui illustrate on the interface between foreign campaigning and domestic politics

Digital Forensics and Investigations Jason Sachowski, 2018-05-16 Digital forensics has been a discipline of Information Security for decades now Its principles methodologies and techniques have remained consistent despite the evolution of technology and ultimately it and can be applied to any form of digital data However within a corporate environment digital forensic professionals are particularly challenged They must maintain the legal admissibility and forensic viability of digital evidence in support of a broad range of different business functions that include incident response electronic discovery ediscovery and ensuring the controls and accountability of such information across networks Digital Forensics and Investigations People Process and Technologies to Defend the Enterprise provides the methodologies and strategies necessary for these key business functions to seamlessly integrate digital forensic capabilities to guarantee the admissibility and integrity of digital evidence In many books the focus on digital evidence is primarily in the technical software and investigative elements of which there are numerous publications What tends to get overlooked are the people and process elements within the organization Taking a step back the book outlines the importance of integrating and accounting for the people process and technology components of digital forensics In essence to establish a holistic paradigm and best practice procedure and policy approach to defending the enterprise This book serves as a roadmap for professionals to successfully integrate an organization s people process and technology with other key business functions in an enterprise s digital forensic capabilities

Towards Innovative Ways of Managing Curriculum in Rural Secondary Schools in the Twenty-First Century , 2023-02-17 The majority of South African principals believe that subject heads and Heads of Departments should be in charge of curriculum and teaching monitoring Due to this impression curricular management by principals does not support teaching and learning According to the KZN department of education s study from 2015 on curriculum management and delivery plan principals now spend more time on administrative responsibilities and learner discipline than on topics related to instructional leadership This book emphasizes how major social and economic development in rural areas is necessary in order to achieve actual quality education Until then the educational options available in rural areas will restrict people s ability to live long productive lives and to learn and experience freedom dignity and self respect Contributors are Bongani Thulani Gamede Samantha Govender Nontobeko Prudence Khumalo Azwidohwi Kutame Mncedisi Christian Maphalala Rachel Gugu Mkhasibe Dumisani Wilfred Mncube Ramashego Shila Mphahlele Fikile Mthethwa Edmore Mutekwe Nokuthula Hierso Ndaba Thandiwe Nonkululeko Ngema Phiwokuhle Bongiwe Ngubane Sindile Ngubane and Dumisani Nzima
