SBA New Markets Venture Capital Program Congressional Research Service, 2014-12-08

Authorized by P L 106 554 the Consolidated Appropriations Act 2001 Appendix H the New Markets Venture Capital Program Act of 2000 the New Markets Venture Capital NMVC program is designed to promote economic development and the creation of wealth and job opportunities in low income geographic areas by addressing the unmet equity investments needs of small businesses located in those areas Modeled on the Small Business Association s SBA s Small Business Investment Company SBIC program SBA selected privately owned and managed NMVC companies provide funding and operational training assistance to small businesses To do so they use private capital the NMVC company has raised called regulatory capital and up to 150% of that amount called leverage from the sale of SBA guaranteed 10 year debentures or loan obligations to third parties subject to the availability of funds Because the SBA guarantees the debenture the SBA is able to obtain favorable interest rates NMVC companies are responsible for meeting the terms and conditions set forth in the debenture At least 80% of the investments must be in small businesses located in a low income area Specialized Small Business Investment Companies SSBICs established under the SBIC program are also eligible for NMVC operational assistance training grants which are awarded on a dollar to dollar matching basis Six NMVC companies are currently participating in the program The NMVC program was appropriated 21 952 million in FY2001 to support up to 150 million in SBA guaranteed debentures and 30 million to fund operational assistance training grants for FY2001 through FY2006 The funds were provided in a lump sum in FY2001 and were to remain available until expended In 2003 the unobligated balances of 10 5 million for the NMVC debenture subsidies and 13 75 million for operational assistance grants were rescinded The program continues to operate with the number and amount of financing declining in recent years as the program s initial investments expire and NMVC companies engage only in additional follow on financings with the small businesses in their portfolios No bills have been introduced during the 113th Congress concerning the NMVC program However more than 30 bills were introduced in recent Congresses to either expand or amend the program Many of these bills would have increased the program s funding For example during the 112th Congress H R 2872 the Job Creation and Urban Revitalization Act of 2011 was introduced on September 8 2011 The bill would have provided the NMVC program such subsidy budget authority as may be necessary to guarantee 75 million of debentures and 15 million for operational assistance training grants for FY2012 through FY2013 This report examines the NMVC program s legislative origins and describes the program s eligibility and performance requirements for NMVC companies eligibility requirements for small businesses seeking financing and definition of low income areas It also reviews regulations governing the SBA s financial assistance to NMVC companies and provides program statistics The report concludes with an examination of 1 efforts to eliminate the program based on concerns that it duplicates other SBA programs and is relatively expensive 2 the rescission of the program s unobligated funding in 2003 and 3 recent congressional efforts to provide the program additional funds Building the Impact Economy Maximilian Martin, 2015-11-25 This book develops a comprehensive framework for creating sustainable new business approaches on a massive scale It relates the power of entrepreneurship investment and technology to four areas in which progress is urgently needed to get out of the world's current impasse These are game changing innovations in companies a way forward for the global fashion industry that reconciles competitiveness and worker dignity turning around the energy crisis and restoring capital markets to being the funders of human progress and prosperity that they once were the pieces of the puzzle that is our future Numerous case studies and actionable guidelines show how to concretely get the job done Small Business in America Arnold Gould, 2002 Small businesses are a key cog in the American economy as firms of under 100 employees represent 98% of the country's enterprises In 1953 Congress created the Small Business Administration to help small firms face the problems of large scale industry mobilisation Congress declared that preserving free and competitive markets are dependent on the vitality of small companies Since the temporary inception of the SBA the federal government has expanded its agencies for and involvement in small businesses This new book examines issues key to small business The Evolving Congress Library of Congress.
