Scenes From Early Life:

Scenes from Early Life Philip Hensher, 2025-06-25 From the Man Booker short listed author of The Northern Clemency a family and a nation Bangladesh are forged through storytelling conversation jokes feuds blood songs bravery and sacrifice In late 1970 a boy named Saadi is born into a large defiantly Bengali family in eastern Pakistan Months later the country splits in two in what will become one of the most ferocious twentieth century civil wars Saadi tells the story of his childhood and of the ingenious ways his family survived the violence and conflicts from his aunts stuffing him endlessly with sweets to stop marauding soldiers from hearing him cry to street games based on American television shows from the basement compartment his grandfather built to hide his treasured books pictures and music until after the war to the daily gossip about each and every one of the relatives servants and neighbors Scenes from Early Life is a beautifully detailed novel of profound empathy an attempt to capture the collective memory of a family and a country At once heartbreaking and surprisingly funny Scenes from Early Life is based on the life of Philip Hensher's husband and as such it is at once a memoir a novel and a history As this remarkable writer brings the past to life we come to feel vividly and viscerally that Saadi's family and its struggles and triumphs are our own Scenes from Early Life is the winner of the 2013 Royal Society of Literature Ondaatje Prize for a distinguished work of fiction non fiction or poetry evoking the spirit of a place Childhood

Copyright Office,1933 Scenes from the History of the Christian Church Andrew Redman Bonar,1849 Education in Twelfth-century Art and Architecture Laura Cleaver,2016 A study of the representation of education in material culture at a period of considerable change and growth On the facade of Chartres cathedral serene personifications of the arts of grammar rhetoric dialectic music arithmetic geometry and astronomy present passers by with a vision of education as an improving process leading to greater knowledge of God The arts proved a popular subject in medieval imagery and were included in manuscripts stained glass and luxury metalwork objects as well as on the facades of churches These idealized figures contrast with many textual accounts of education in which authors recorded the hardships of student poverty and the temptations of drink and women to be found in the cities where teachers were increasingly establishing themselves Thisbook considers how and why education was explored in the art and architecture of the twelfth century Through analysis of imagery in a wide range of media it examines how teachers and students sought to use images to enhance their reputations and the status of their studies It also investigates how the ideal models often set out in imagery compared with contemporary practice in an era that saw significant changes beginning with a shift away from monastic education and culminating in the appearance of the first universities LAURA CLEAVER is Senior Lecturer in Manuscript Studies Institute of English Studies University of London The Small Worlds of Childhood Lauren Shizuko Stone,2025-05-06 The Small Worlds of Childhood argues that prose representations of bourgeois childhood contain surprising opportunities to reflect on the temporality of experience In their narratives of children at home in their everyday worlds Adalbert Stifter Rainer Maria Rilke and Walter Benjamin are not only able to shed a unique light on key issues in the history of philosophy They also offer a queer critique of the normative expectation that the literature of childhood is oriented toward the future Stone shows that when writers engage in philosophical storytelling showing children tarrying in quotidian experience they dislodge childhood from its nostalgic value to grown ups and the heteronormative demand to grow up Such stories of children as philosophical subjects thus take on their own lingering backwards or all together strange sense of time Stone demonstrates the necessity of recognizing how texts on childhood before and beyond Freud engage literary language in the service of a variety of philosophical attitudes reminding us how poetic techniques can tell us something extraordinary about moments of ordinary experience and the manner with which humans and especially children cognize the world By bringing canonical German language literary and philosophical traditions into conversation with current English language queer approaches Stone opens a queer counter history of German and Austrian realist and modernist literature This title is available from the publisher on an open access basis The Mosaics of St. Mary's of the Admiral in Palermo Ernst Kitzinger,1990 The text explores the iconographic and stylistic sources of the Greek mosaicists as well as the departures from Byzantine norms and the relationship of the decoration to contemporary work in the royal foundations Also included is a chapter on the architecture of the church by Slobodan urci The Image of St Francis Rosalind B. Brooke,2006-11-30 An important reappraisal of the image of St Francis as it was recorded in literature documents architecture and art Highly illustrated throughout including colour and black and white plates and containing key extracts from the major sources this book bridges the boundaries of history and the history of art A Dictionary of Practical Medicine: Comprising General Pathology ... James Copland,1847 A Dictionary of Practical Medicine James Copland,1855 New Silent Cinema Katherine Groo,Paul Flaig,2015-09-16 With the success of Martin Scorsese's Hugo 2011 and Michel Hazanavicius's The Artist 2011 nothing seems more contemporary in recent film than the styles forms and histories of early and silent cinemas This collection considers the latest return to silent film alongside the larger historical field of visual repetitions and affective currents that wind their way through 20th and 21st century visual cultures Contributors bring together several fields of research including early and silent cinema studies experimental and new media historiography and archive theory and studies of media ontology and epistemology Chapters link the methods concerns and concepts of early and silent film studies as they have flourished over the last quarter century to the most recent developments in digital culture from YouTube to 3D recasting this contemporary phenomenon in popular culture and new media against key debates and concepts in silent film scholarship An interview with acclaimed Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin closes out the collection The Pollaiuolo Brothers Alison Wright,Antonio Pollaiuolo,2005-01-01 Painters draftsmen goldsmiths sculptors and designers the Pollaiuolo brothers of fifteenth century Florence produced some of the most beautiful works of the Italian Renaissance
