,2001-04 Life'S Lessons Learnt Sean A O'Reilly, 2016-05-25 Every person has an interesting life story to tell and I do not claim that my story is unique I write about my experience of living alone with my grandmother on an Irish farm and why it shaped my national identity My life changing move to London and the need to become street wise and still make it to university is covered I describe how my debating exploits at school and university got me an invitation to The House of Lords and how I met my future wife and entering a grammar school for the very first time as teacher My passion for comprehensive education more enlightened science teaching and my role in senior school management all get an airing as well as my camping political and sporting adventures Space is given to how we made lifelong friends with some Germans and our many years of skiing in Austria and Norway The book also covers the period from early retirement in 1999 to my years teaching in some of Englands elite private schools and why girls really do love chocolate I describe how I coped with a heart bypass in 2012 and got back to marathon running and took up marathon bike riding for charity I conclude with my take on the human predicament

Integrated Intelligence Marcus Anthony, 2008-01-01
Marcus Anthony examines theories of intelligence and consciousness and the way in which they represent or exclude intuitive spiritual and mystical experience His argument identifies the way narrowly defined rational definitions of mind have come to dominate and restrict contemporary discourses in science and education He develops the theory of integrated intelligence an expanded model which incorporates the non rational elements of human intelligence long missing in mainstream western discourses Anthony indicates how and why they should be incorporated into modern education systems
