Of the Origin of Government David Hume, 2020-09-28 MAN born in a family is compelled to maintain society from necessity from natural inclination and from habit The same creature in his farther progress is engaged to establish political society in order to administer justice without which there can be no peace among them nor safety nor mutual intercourse We are therefore to look upon all the vast apparatus of our government as having ultimately no other object or purpose but the distribution of justice or in other words the support of the twelve judges Kings and parliaments fleets and armies officers of the court and revenue ambassadors ministers and privy counsellors are all subordinate in their end to this part of administration Even the clergy as their duty leads them to inculcate morality may justly be thought so far as regards this world to have no other useful object of their institution

The Governance of Philanthropic Foundations in Authoritarian China Qian Wei, 2022-12-16 This book is the first monograph to provide a multilevel analysis of power dynamics underlying the governance of philanthropic foundations in the authoritarian context of China As a special kind of organization with a democratic culture Chinese foundations governance is under more pressure than we realize The government has been evolving its methods to impose stringent control over foundations Chapter 3 and purer foundations highly dependent on individual donations are more likely to adopt authoritarian leadership styles rather than being mechanisms spreading democratic values in Chinese society Chapter 4 However this practice does not come without a price Given power s double edge of both enabling and constraining effects although strongman leaders may use their power to get things done their power may also cause the problem of accountability Chapter 5 Overall Chinese society is a stable system with authoritarian power modes This system is not static but in constant flux homogenizing incompatible parts until all units of the system adopt the same power mode This book establishes a comprehensive and bleak picture of the unfavorable conditions foundations in China face and provides valuable insights to understand the future of the nonprofit sector in China This book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of sociology political science and nonprofit studies NGO management It will also be a valuable resource for NGP practitioners
