

NOTICE OF HIPAA PRIVACY PRACTICES

DR. FREEMAN & ASSOCIATES
3290 CHURCH ROAD, RICHMOND VA 23233

This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you are allowed to access your health information.

OUR LEGAL DUTY:

Our office is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information. Our office is required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties and your rights concerning your health information. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by law. You may request a copy of this Notice at any time.

USE OF DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION:

With your signed consent, we can use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment and daily office operations. For Example:

TREATMENT: We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you or consulting on your treatment.

PAYMENT: We may use or disclose your health information to obtain payment from you or your insurance providers for health services you have received.

DAILY OFFICE OPERATIONS: We may use or disclose your health information within our physical office location for the use of daily office operations such as scheduling appointments, relaying information to medical personnel, and filing insurance.

APPOINTMENT REMINDERS: We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders such as voicemail, answering machines, postcards, letters, or e-mail.

YOUR AUTHORIZATION:

Unless you give us additional written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice. We must disclose your health information to you. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree that we may disclose that information to that specific person. Copies of your healthcare records may only be released with your signature, and we will use our professional judgment in allowing a person, other than the patient, to pick up prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays or other medical records.

PERSONS INVOLVED IN CARE:

We may use or disclose health information to notify a family member or the person responsible for your care, of your general condition. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on our professional judgment and disclose only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare.

MARKETING:

Your health information will not be used for marketing communications with third party companies.

REQUIRED BY LAW:

We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law. We may disclose to military authorities the health information of Armed Forces personnel. We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities. We may disclose to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials health information of patients who are or becoming inmates.

Creating and Updating an Employee Policy Manual: Policies for Your Practice American Dental Association, 2016-06-01

This resource helps dental practices develop an office policy manual. Includes sample policies, forms, and worksheets to help craft the perfect policy for your dental employee handbook. With 99 sample dental office policies, sample dental job descriptions, templates for forms, worksheets, and checklists, and explanations of at-will employment. Also offers information on dental staff training including OSHA and HIPAA.

Medical Data Privacy Handbook Aris Gkoulalas-Divanis, Grigorios Loukides, 2015-11-26. This handbook covers Electronic Medical Record (EMR) systems which enable the storage, management, and sharing of massive amounts of demographic, diagnosis, medication, and genomic information. It presents privacy preserving methods for medical data ranging from laboratory test results to doctors' comments. The reuse of EMR data can greatly benefit medical science and practice but must be performed in a privacy preserving way according to data sharing policies and regulations. Written by world renowned leaders in this field, each chapter offers a survey of a research direction or a solution to problems in established and emerging research areas. The authors explore scenarios and techniques for facilitating the anonymization of different types of medical data as well as various data mining tasks. Other chapters present methods for emerging data privacy applications and medical text de-identification including detailed surveys of deployed systems. A part of the book is devoted to legislative and policy issues reporting on the US and EU privacy legislation and the cost of privacy breaches in the healthcare domain. This reference is intended for professionals, researchers, and advanced level students interested in safeguarding medical data.

Stedman's Guide to the HIPAA Privacy Rule Kathy Rockel, 2005-08-18. Stedman's Guide to the HIPAA Privacy Rule finally makes clear for medical transcription students and professionals the confusing legal issues surrounding the HIPAA Privacy Rule and how it relates to and affects their practice. This text provides comprehensive information about the rule itself, how it affects service owners and independent contractors, implementation guidelines, sample template contract language, and sample policies. Mnemonics and other quick aids help readers remember important information. Case-based vignettes and real world applications emphasize the practical application of the law on medical transcriptions. End of chapter critical thinking questions with answers in an appendix encourage readers to ponder and apply information.

HIPAA Privacy Source Book William S. Hubbart, 2004. Preparing business managers and human resources professionals for the myriad questions surrounding the new Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Privacy Rule, this guide has more than 80 tools that help employers understand and comply with the new statutes. Sample policies, procedures, and forms will aid in quickly developing a privacy program, and training materials will aid in educating employees as to its requirements. Checklists and training materials include requirements for group health plans, an authorization checklist, and a training leader's guide. A section-by-section summary of the Privacy Rule provides an accessible, summarized reference. A CD-ROM with forms, policies, checklists, and training

Procedures Thomas R. Peltier, 2004-06-11 Information Security Policies and Procedures A Practitioner's Reference Second Edition illustrates how policies and procedures support the efficient running of an organization. This book is divided into two parts: an overview of security policies and procedures and an information security reference guide. This volume points out how security documents and standards are key elements in the business process that should never be undertaken to satisfy a perceived audit or security requirement. Instead, policies, standards, and procedures should exist only to support business objectives or mission requirements; they are elements that aid in the execution of management policies. The book emphasizes how information security must be integrated into all aspects of the business process. It examines the 12 enterprise-wide Tier 1 policies and maps information security requirements to each. The text also discusses the need for top-specific Tier 2 policies and application-specific Tier 3 policies and details how they map with standards and procedures. It may be tempting to download some organization's policies from the Internet, but Peltier cautions against that approach. Instead, he investigates how best to use examples of policies, standards, and procedures toward the achievement of goals. He analyzes the influx of national and international standards and outlines how to effectively use them to meet the needs of your business. Modern Dental Assisting - E-Book Doni L. Bird, Debbie S.
