A Complete Guide to Rubrics Audrey M. Quinlan, 2012 This book takes a developmental perspective at the use of scoring rubrics to assess student work Citing developmental characteristics of each age the author presents examples and adaptations of assessment rubrics on a variety of subjects for teachers from kindergarten through adult college After a presentation of foundation information on rubrics separate chapters are devoted to each grade level from primary through adult Written so that each chapter can be addressed independently the book provides additional chapters devoted to assessing technological topics and using rubrics with students with special needs The final chapters provide practical information to help teachers to create their own rubrics and to covert rubric scores to letter grades An updated annotated listing of recommended rubric websites is included

Writing the Classroom Stephen E. Neaderhiser, 2022-11-21 Writing the Classroom explores how faculty compose and use pedagogical documents to establish classroom expectations and teaching practices as well as to articulate the professional identities they perform both inside and outside the classroom The contributors to this unique collection employ a wide range of methodological frameworks to demonstrate how pedagogical genres even ones as seemingly straightforward as the class syllabus have lives extending well beyond the classroom as they become part of how college teachers represent their own academic identities advocate for pedagogical values and negotiate the many external forces that influence the act of teaching Writing the Classroom shines a light on genres that are often treated as two dimensional with purely functional purposes arguing instead that genres like assignment prompts course proposals teaching statements and policy documents play a fundamental role in constructing the classroom and the broader pedagogical enterprise within academia Writing the Classroom calls on experienced teachers and faculty administrators to critically consider their own engagement with pedagogical genres and offers graduate students and newer faculty insight into the genres that they may only now be learning to inhabit as they seek to establish their personal teacherly identities It showcases the rhetorical complexity of the genres written in the service of pedagogy not only for students but also for the many other audiences within academia that have a role in shaping the experience of teaching Contributors Michael Albright Lora Arduser Lesley Erin Bartlett Logan Bearden Lindsay Clark Dana Comi Zack K De Piero Matt Dowell Amy Ferdinandt Stolley Mark A Hannah Megan Knight Laura R Micciche Cindy Mooty Dustin Morris Kate Navickas Kate Nesbit Jim Nugent Lori A Ostergaard Cynthia Pengilly Jessica Rivera Mueller Christina Saidy Megan Schoen Virginia Schwarz Christopher Toth
