Abstract:

A systematic survey of quantitative assessments of preschool children with autism spectrum is presented as representing their identity as an independent culture with a right to live in the mainstream world, accepted as they are. This calls for an assessment of social, communicative and locomotion motor skills and the minimal comprehension and cognitive skills needed to inhabit this world with the minimal accommodations. Stakeholders in a transition and the mainstream IEP are identified with a cautionary note on the inadequacies of a curricular approach in IEP, in lieu of alternative schooling. Holistic approaches from the Himalayan viewpoint, and other viewpoints of informal Catholic, Islamic, Judaist, Buddhist, Vedic and other major theologies are presented for alternative schooling as a transition strategy.

Keywords: Alternative schooling, transition strategy, stakeholders, quantitative methods.

Introduction.

A formal curricular education from preschool , marks a learning path termed s-coolie or scoolie by the author, denoting a life long trajectory of learning and transition for normal and autistic individuals. While more normal scoolies, end up in a technological slavery, they end up in 30 year bondages to mortgages and automotive financing, and increased materialism, with the American Dream of success defined in a high paying career and a two garage home, with two or more automobiles, taking decades to own.

With this mindset, expectations are set for a preschool autistic child with this definition of
