The Politics of the Dead in Zimbabwe, 2000-2020 Joost Fontein, 2022
Innovative and challenging study that provides fresh insights on the anthropology of death and postcolonial politics. In 1898, just before she was hanged for rebelling against colonial rule, Charwe Nyakasikana, spirit medium of the legendary ancestor Ambuya Nehanda, famously prophesied that her bones will rise again. A century later, bones, bodies, and human remains have come to occupy an increasingly complex place in Zimbabwe's postcolonial milieu. From ancestral bones rising again in the struggle for independence and later land to resurfacing bones of unsettled war dead and from the troubling decaying remains of post-independence Gukurahundi massacres to the leaky, tortured bodies of recent election violence, human materials are intertwined in postcolonial politics in ways that go far beyond yet necessarily implicate contests over memory, commemoration, and the representation of the past. In this book, Joost Fontein examines the complexities of human remains in Zimbabwe's politics of the dead. Challenging and innovative, he takes us beyond current scholarship on memory, commemoration, and the changing significance of traditional death practices to examine the political implications of human remains as material substances, as duplicitous rumours, and as returning spirits. Linking the indeterminacy of human substances to the productive but precarious uncertainties of rumours and spirits, the book points to how the incompleteness of death is politically productive and ultimately derives from the problematic entangled excessivities of human material and immaterial existence and is deeply intertwined with the stylistics of postcolonial power and politics. Joost Fontein is Professor of Anthropology, University of Johannesburg. He was previously Director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa and Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the University of Edinburgh. His books include Remaking Mutirikwi Landscape, Water and Belonging (James Currey, 2015, shortlisted for the African Studies Association 2016 Herskovits Prize Southern Africa), South Africa, Namibia, Lesotho, Swaziland and Botswana (University of Johannesburg Press, 2016), Knowledge and Practice in Business and Organisations (Kevin Orr, Sandra Nutley, Shona Russell, Rod Bain, Bonnie Hacking, Clare Moran, 2016-03-22). Knowledge and Practice in Business and Organisations contributes to scholarly understanding of knowledge and practice, mapping the conceptual terrain, providing a critical review of debates in the field, and setting out key theoretical perspectives. Knowledge
