Vaccine Safety Research, Data Access, and Public Trust Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Promotion and Disease Prevention, Committee on the Review of the National Immunization Program's Research Procedures and Data Sharing Program, 2005-04-29 The Vaccine Safety Datalink VSD is a large linked database of patient information that was developed jointly by CDC and several private managed care organizations in 1991 It includes data on vaccination histories health outcomes and characteristics of more than 7 million patients of eight participating health organizations Researchers from CDC and the managed care groups have used VSD information to study whether health problems are associated with vaccinations The subsequent VSD data sharing program was launched in 2002 to allow independent external researchers access to information in the database In this report the committee that was asked to review aspects of this program recommends that two new oversight groups are needed to ensure that the policies and procedures of the VSD and its data sharing program are implemented as fairly and openly as possible Documents Council of Europe: Parliamentary Assembly, 2008-10-23 Examining FCE and CAE Roger Hawkey, 2009-03-19 This volume examines the historical development of the First Certificate in English FCE and the Certificate in Advanced English CAE Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2005 Keeping the Lights on Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee, 2006-04-16 Keeping the lights On Nuclear renewables and climate change sixth report of session 2005 06 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence Drug Safety Evaluation Shayne Cox Gad, 2016-11-18 This practical guide presents a road map for safety assessment as an integral part of the development of new drugs and therapeutics Helps readers solve scientific technical and regulatory issues in preclinical safety assessment and early clinical drug development Explains scientific and philosophical bases for evaluation of specific concerns including local tissue tolerance target organ toxicity and carcinogenicity developmental toxicity immunogenicity and immunotoxicity Covers the development of new small and large molecules generics 505 b 2 route NDAs and biosimilars Revises material to reflect new drug products small synthetic large proteins and cells and tissues harmonized global and national regulations and new technologies for safety evaluation Adds almost 20% new and thoroughly updates existing content from the last edition After Madrid Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. European Union Committee, 2005 This report examines the EU's response to international terrorism after the Madrid bombings in March 2004 including the European Council declaration and the European Commission's proposals on data exchange and intelligence sharing between law enforcement authorities data protection issues EU institutional structures designed to combat terrorism the international dimension including the role of Interpol data transfer and passports terrorist financing and access to financial databases Conclusions reached by the Committee include that the EU's role in combating terrorism should remain a coordinating one in support of the Member States which must retain primary responsibility and the EU should engage with international agencies particularly Interpol

Given the range of interests involved effective co ordination and the work of the EU Counter terrorism Co ordinator are crucial and the present proliferation of EU groups and agencies needs to be reduced and streamlined A uniform data protection regime within the EU would not only provide better data protection but would also facilitate the exchange of information
