Becoming John Updike Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2013 When John Updike died in 2009 tributes from the literary establishment were immediate and fulsome However no one reading reviews of Updike's work in the late 1960s would have predicted that kind of praise for a man who was known then as a brilliant stylist who had nothing to say What changed Why And what is likely to be his legacy These are the questions that Becoming John Updike pursues by examining the journalistic and academic response to his writings Several things about Updike's career make a reception study appropriate First he was prolific he began publishing fiction and essays in 1956 published his first book in 1958 and from then on brought out at least one new book each year Second his books were reviewed widely usually in major American newspapers and magazines and often in foreign ones as well Third Updike quickly became a darling of academics the first book about his work was published in 1967 less than a decade after his own first book More than three dozen books and hundreds of articles of academic criticism have been devoted to Updike The present volume will appeal to the continuing interest in Updike's writing among academics and general readers alike Laurence W Mazzeno is President Emeritus of Alvernia University Among other books he has written volumes on Austen Dickens Tennyson and Matthew Arnold for Camden House's Literary Criticism in Perspective series Life Skills Literacy: Things to Know about Cars and Driving Richard S. Kimball, 1998 Between the Tides David Pickell, 2003-04-15 Featuring hundreds of original color photographs this fascinating study of New Guinea chronicles the rituals and daily life of this remote and culturally rich region Between the Tides offers a compelling mix of

New Guinean storytelling history natural history politics and culture David Pickell brings warmth and intelligence to his subject and Kal Muller s photographs are surprising and evocative Together author and photographer show how an isolated nomadic past meets a worldly urban future history confronts superstition and a false and imposed sense of shame yields to a new and still fragile pride Their journey took them from the dusty New Guinea frontier town of Timika to tiny Lakahia island along two hundred miles of twisting mangrove creeks and the relentlessly uncooperative Arafura sea What they found was a culture facing the delicate sometimes humorous occasionally painful and always interesting process of change The
