Pour Ida Brown:

American Agriculturist, 1924 Argentina Noir Cynthia Schmidt-Cruz, 2019-02-14 An engaging and insightful guide to Argentine crime fiction since 2000 Argentina Noir offers a guide to Argentine crime fiction with a focus on works published since the year 2000 It argues that the novela negra or crime novel has become the favored genre for many writers to address the social malaise brought about by changes linked to globalization and market driven economic policies Cynthia Schmidt Cruz presents close readings and original interpretations of eleven novels all set in or around Buenos Aires and explores the ways these texts adapt major motifs figures and literary techniques in Hispanic crime fiction in order to give voice to wide ranging social critiques Schmidt Cruz addresses such topics as organized crime and institutional complicity corruption during the presidency of Carlos Menem 1989 1999 terrorist attacks on Jewish institutions in Buenos Aires and the mysterious death of Alberto Nisman and the winners and the losers of neoliberal structural changes With a solid underpinning in sociological studies and criticism of the genre and its historical context Argentina Noir reveals how these novels are renovating the genre to engage pressing issues confronting not only Argentina but also countries throughout Latin America and around the globe This is a very significant contribution to the field It is a full and illustrative as well as authoritative guide to crime fiction and the novela negra in Argentina in the twenty first century with a particular focus on the literature s social and political thematics Philip Swanson author of The New Novel in Latin America Politics and Popular Culture after the Boom Full of Hope and Fear Margaret Bonfiglioli, James Munson, 2014-07-24 The First World War has survived as part of our national memory in a way no previous war has ever done This collection of letters which lay untouched for almost ninety years allows a unique glimpse into the war as experienced by one family at the time transporting us back to an era which is now slipping tantalizingly out of living memory The Slaters the family at the heart of these letters lived in Oxford Like most families they were both typical and unique Gilbert the father of the family had been head of Ruskin College in Oxford and during the war found work as the first Professor of Indian Economics in Madras His wife Violet grew to detest the war and became an increasingly vocal pacifist as the slaughter continued Owen their eldest son a schoolboy in 1914 was fighting in France by war s end In the letters they wrote to each other and their friends at this time we see how the war increasingly impacted upon each of their lives and the life of the world around them rationing Violet s increasing involvement in radical politics the deaths of friends the fear of Zeppelin raids when in London the endless discussions between Violet and Gilbert about how to keep their son out of the trenches and the growth of Owen from schoolboy to soldier serving as a junior officer on the Western Front Above all in their privacy and immediacy their inconsistencies and false hopes these letters bring us as near as we can ever be to understanding what people thought feared and hoped for during these momentous years

Translating Home in the Global South Isabel C. Gómez, Marlene Hansen Esplin, 2023-11-30 This collection explores the relationships between acts of translation and the movement of peoples across linguistic cultural and physical borders centering the voices of migrant writers and translators in literatures and language cultures of the Global South To offer a counterpoint to existing scholarship this book examines translation practices as forms of both home building and un homing for communities in migration Drawing on scholarship from translation studies as well as eco criticism decolonial thought and gender studies the book s three parts critically reflect on different dimensions of the intersection of translation and migration in a diverse range of literary genres and media Part I looks at self translation collaboration and cocreation as modes of expression born out of displacement and exile Part II considers radical strategies of literary translation and the threats and opportunities they bring in situations of detention and border policing Part III looks ahead to the ways in which translation can act as a powerful means of fostering responsibility solidarity and community in building an inclusive multilingual public sphere even in the face of climate crisis This dynamic volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies migration and mobility studies postcolonial studies and comparative literature The Introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license 4 0 license The Leghorn World ,1924

Christian Advocate, 1916 Geografías de papel Cristina Daniele, 2025-09-22

Due a de una mirada minuciosa y una crítica sagaz Cristina Daniele explora la dimensión espacial no solo desde una marcación geográfica que permite agrupar territorialidades por sus características intrínsecas campo ciudad pueblos pequeños entre zonas lugares ectópicos sino también desde la concepción de un mundo físico mensurable que da cuenta de su vastedad al mismo tiempo que establece los límites de su propia extensión Cada ensayo se enriquece con el análisis profundo de los umbrales donde se despliega la metáfora de toda dialéctica Movimiento y quietud llevan a los personajes a un desplazamiento en línea recta en círculos o a quedar en grado cero donde el lugar elegido actúa como partícipe y constructor de los destinos La indagación exhaustiva de la autora aborda pares de binarios como un prisma que abre luz sobre un aspecto y su opuesto adentro afuera centro periferia próximo lejano abierto cerrado Geografías de papel es un libro ameno y lúdico que nos permite una lectura más detallada de las novelas presentadas y dejar la impronta de cómo apreciar la dimensión espacial en cualquier otra narrativa que abordemos en adelante Nancy Montemurro
