These participants had been asked not to discuss the study with other people, but a 10% drop-out rate occurred because of this. In the 1990s, studies of this nature were not designed to protect individualized responses, and the data were therefore not anonymized. The data are available on request, and the researchers have agreed to make the data available to other researchers on request.

Workshops (open to any group) and short interventions will not result in certificate completion. If the program does not include formal instruction, it needs to be well-organized, offer some demonstration of learning that assessment will verify, and have a strong emphasis on the overall life experience of the person taking the following program.
