

Dear Parents:

Next week, your child will be taking our state's standardized test.

By working together, we can make your child's test experience positive and successful. Here are some suggestions that you can do to help your child succeed:

- ☆ Make sure your child gets a good night's rest.
- ☆ Have your child eat a healthy breakfast at home or in the cafeteria at school.
- ☆ Make sure your child arrives at school on time.
- ☆ Gently encourage your child to do their best.

Please take a moment to write an encouraging note on the attached paper. Return this note in a sealed envelope before the test, and I will give it to your child the first morning of testing.

Thanks for your help!

Library Association's Choice magazine in 2000. The expanded second edition, packed with insights, anecdotes, and updated research, provides mentors with a road map for helping new teachers become confident, reflective educators. The collaborative model outlined in the book is enlightening and rewarding for the mentor and the novice alike. The authors have incorporated the latest findings on all aspects of mentoring, from preparing to be a mentoring guide or coach to school culture and parent outreach. Teachers will find five new chapters on working with ELL students, working with parents, curriculum mapping, school culture, and the role of administrators within an effective mentoring system. Organized around a series of questions, the book allows mentors to quickly locate practical advice to match any mentoring situation. The range of resources includes recommendations for pairing mentors and teachers, questions to jump start conversations, ideas for teacher reflection, and answers to the most commonly asked mentor questions.
