VanderZwaag, Gloria Chao, 2006-10-16 The aquaculture industry is fast expanding around the globe and causing major environmental and social disruptions The volume is about getting a good governance grip on this important industry The book highlights the numerous law and policy issues that must be addressed in the search for effective regulation of aquaculture Those issues include among others the equitable and fair assignment of property rights the design of effective dispute resolution mechanisms clarification of what maritime laws apply to aquaculture adoption of a proper taxation system for aquaculture resolution of aboriginal offshore title and rights claims recognition of international trade law restrictions such as labeling limitations and food safety requirements and determination of whether genetically modified fish should be allowed and if so under what controls This book will appeal to a broad range of audiences undergraduate and postgraduate students academic researchers policy makers NGOs practicing lawyers and industry representatives Fish Farming Technology H. Reinersten, L.A. Dahle, L. Jorgensen, 1993-06-01 Over the past few years it has become more and more obvious that fish farming will become increasingly important in the future As fish farming moves into its industrial phase technology will be an important factor in determining its successful development It is therefore important for scientists representatives from the aquaculture industry to meet to define state of the art and explore future development of fish farming technology for different fish species 81 papers and abstracts were presented at the conference The proceedings reflect the different sections of the conference the plenum sessions and three parallel sessions Juvenile marine fish open production plants closed production plants and poster sessions Peace Corps Times Peace Corps (U.S.), 1984 Peace Corps Times, 1984 The Context of Small-scale Integrated Agriculture-aquaculture Systems in Africa, 1991 Aquaculture Project Formulation David Insull, Colin E. Nash, 1990 This document is intended primarily as didactic material for use in training courses in aquaculture project formulation It can also be read as a text in its own right by government administrators and planners particularly in developing countries and by commercial investors in aquaculture The first part of the document contains a broad introduction to project formulation describing the integration of aquaculture projects within development plans the organization and management of project formulation projects and the stages of the project cycle It is not only important for projects to be satisfactorily integrated into the economy of the sub sector but also that those responsible for project formulation should be aware of the practical problems which may arise in project implementation Project formulation and implementation therefore are described briefly here as a single entity consisting of twelve phases and the more frequently occurring problems encountered in project implementation are described. Illustrations of three actual aquaculture projects are given to show the diversity which may be encountered by planners. The second part of the document is concerned only with the six phases of project formulation encompassing project identification, preparation and appraisal. The sequence of activities carried out within each phase are described within 17 steps each including further activities or tasks. Drawing on the characteristics of these illustrative models, particular attention is given to differences of approach between the public and private sectors. Towards Improving Global Information on Aquaculture Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. Fisheries Department, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2005-01-01. In recent years the demand for reliable data and reporting on aquaculture has greatly increased, driven not only by the need to formulate and monitor sound policies and development plans but also by the reporting requirements of international agreements and by increasing public demand for transparency and accountability. This document sets out the findings of a FAO expert consultation held in January 2004 to discuss relevant issues including approval of a draft strategy and outline plan for improving information on status and trends of aquaculture. Aquaculture Research, 1983.

Massachusetts Aquaculture White Paper & Strategic Plan, 1995. Strategic plan explains the status and future of aquaculture, includes recommendations to overcome existing constraints and take advantage of opportunities in the fishing and shellfish industry. White paper provides an overview of inland and marine aquaculture. 2016 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance United States. Congress. Senate. Office of Management and Budget. Executive Office of the President, 2016. Identifies and describes specific government assistance opportunities such as loans, grants, counseling and procurement contracts available under many agencies and programs. Didactic Strategies and Resources for Innovative Geography Teaching García de la Vega, Alfonso, 2022-06-10. Education has undergone a series of changes based on the new technologies, strategies and best practices that have been developed in recent years. Specifically, the way various subjects are taught has developed considerably as education turns toward a more digital approach. Geography education is no different and has had to adjust to these innovative practices in order to provide students with the best possible curricula. Didactic Strategies and Resources for Innovative Geography Teaching presents educational strategies and resources to promote cross-disciplinary approaches to teaching geographic knowledge and skills. The book also discusses how geography education boosts essential cognitive and attitudinal processes in personal development, fosters critical thinking and builds a society committed to its environment. Covering key topics such as mobile learning, natural learning environments and geographic information systems, this reference work is ideal for teachers, geographers, researchers, scholars, academicians, practitioners, instructors and students.
