Salaam From South Africa English Edition:

English and Development Elizabeth J. Erling,Philip Seargeant,2013-05-16 This book investigates the relationship between English and personal and national development in the era of globalization It addresses the effects that the increased use of English and the promotion of English language education are having in developmental contexts and their impact on broader educational issues English as a Language of Teaching and Learning for Community Secondary Schools in Tanzania Elia Shabani Mligo,Mikael Mwashilindi,2017-08-07 This book examines the challenges posed by English a foreign language as a language of teaching and learning for community secondary schools in Tanzania in terms of academic performance The book probes the necessity for having two languages of instruction in the Tanzanian educational system While Kiswahili the native language is predominantly understood by the majority of people the discussion in this book indicates that most students in community secondary schools in Tanzania are incompetent in understanding writing listening reading and speaking English a language they use in learning and doing their examinations especially in the early stages of their secondary studies The incompetence in the above mentioned skills is mostly caused by their inability to cope with the abrupt transition in the languages of instruction from their pre primary and primary school study Kiswahili to secondary school study English Moreover most teachers are unable to use the English language as a means to impart knowledge or facilitate learning to their students leading them to code switching and code mixing This book poses a challenge to countries whose students pass through a transition from one language of instruction to another in their educational systems helping them to make appropriate decisions in regard to the appropriate language of teaching and learning Registratur AA. 3 Basler Afrika Bibliographien,2006 The collection contains primary material from Swapo and about Swapo dating from the 1960s to 1990 It contains the history of Swapo and the Namibian liberation struggle Health Data Publication ,1959 Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa - Highlights from a Project ,2010-01-01 This book is based on chapters in a series of four books from the first five years 2002 2006 of the Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA project LOITASA is a NUFU funded Norwegian University Fund project which began in January 2002 and will continue through to the end of 2011 The chapters reflect the state of the research at the end of the first five years of LOITASA in 2006 and were selected by reviewers independent of the project The selection of chapters brought together bring to the forefront the dilemmas facing developing countries as they seek to position themselves in an increasingly interconnected global system while at the same time maintaining a sense of national and regional identity The chapters in this collection reflect both positive outcomes when the medium of instruction is a widely known language as well as the challenges of mother tongue instruction in countries where historically a powerful language like English has dominated The four LOITASA books in this series from which the chapters in this book are drawn are Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA published by E Zubeida Desai the South African project leader and Martha Qorro who is on the project steering committee in Tanzania Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen,2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning Transport Planning and Mobility in Urban East Africa Nadine Appelhans,Wolfgang Scholz,Sabine Baumgart,2020-11-26 This book critically explores the relationship between mobility patterns transport provision and urban development in East African cities Bringing together contributions on the futures of mobility in urban East Africa the chapters examine transport provision mobility patterns location specific modes of transport and transformative factors for transport and mobility in the rapidly urbanising region The book outlines different mobility needs to be addressed in transport planning to serve and shape the respective cities and examines the decision making process in transport planning and the level of accountability to the public The contributors show the dialectic between innovation in transport mobility and urban development under rapid urbanisation and discusses how to practically integrate mobility and transport provision into urban development This book will be of interest to scholars in urban planning transport planning transport geography social sciences and African studies Strategic Review ,1975 dedicated to the advancement and understanding of those principles and practices military and political which serve the vital security interests of the United States Handbooks Prepared Under the Direction of the Historical Section of the Foreign Office: German African possessions (late), no. 110-114 ,1920 Educational Challenges in Multilingual Societies Zubeida Desai,Martha Qorro,Birgit Brock-Utne,2010 Most of the chapters in this book were presented at the Sixth LOITASA Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa Workshop held at the University of the Western Cape in South Africa in May 2009 P 4 of cover The Link Between Health, Social Issues, and Secondary Education ,2007-01-01 The Link between Health Social Issues and Secondary Education is based on country studies in six Sub Saharan African countries Eritrea Mali Namibia Senegal South Africa and Tanzania and a literature review It looks at
