

The Legalization of Same-Sex Marriage in the Philippines

Same-sex marriage is the practice of marrying someone of the same sex. It is a marriage between two women or two men under the law. Most countries in the world have already legalized same-sex marriage, but not all. The Philippines is one of the countries that have yet to legalize same-sex marriage in the country. There was international research on how many people are part of the LGBTQ+ community in the Philippines. According to the research, most of the people who are part of the LGBTQ+ community in the Philippines are in the Metro Manila area. This shows the support of people who are part of the LGBTQ+ in the country. Then, the question came up, should we allow the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the Philippines? There was a survey conducted by the Social Weather Stations in that part of the Philippines on the issue of legalizing same-sex marriage. The majority of the survey showed that 60% of the people who support the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the Philippines. 20% are in favor of legalizing it and 20% of the Philippines have not decided whether they agree or disagree on the matter. This indicates that the acceptance rate of the citizens in the Philippines toward same-sex marriage is still pretty low despite the Philippines being a "gay-friendly country" (Gonzalez, 2018). The president of the Philippines, Mr. Rodrigo Duterte, also opposed the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the country. He said that he is not an atheist and that same-sex marriage is not applicable here in the Philippines because he is a Catholic (Gonzalez, 2017). Regardless, same-sex marriage should be legalized in the Philippines to strengthen the fundamental rights of equality and free freedom of belief and religion.

There are many reasons for the LGBTQ+ community to be supported in the country. One has applied a long-standing tradition in the thinking of citizens, especially the church. There are many in the Philippines who are religious people. Because of their belief in religious fundamentalism, many who are not religious is considered as one of minority and even if they are religious, conservative people have thought that gay, lesbian, transgender, and other who support in religious freedom is not an equal right under the law (Gonzalez, 2018). Gonzalez et al., 2018. This survey is an act of representation of religious freedom in relation to the freedom of religion and the gay support the freedom of belief and freedom of religion in the Philippines (Gonzalez et al., 2018). This shows that the Philippines' religious community also is possible not to providing support and respecting attitude for a fundamental acceptance of
