

How to Write an Autobiography

Tips to write an autobiography:

Like the examples of autobiographies discussed above, any autobiography needs to deal with a few aspects:

Introduction: One needs to give an introduction about themselves in the autobiography. This introduction needs to contain basic aspects like name, where you live, when and where were you born, what conditions were you born in, etc.

You in totality: This part of the autobiography deals with a general point of view, that you hold about yourself. It also needs to let the reader be able to visualize you in the current day. You need to include your current situations, habits, lifestyle etc.

Life, in general: This part of the autobiography deals with your view about life, on a general note. You need to include your understanding of life and its implications. This part is your route to propound your belief. So, make it descriptive.

View and aims: Here, you talk about where do you see yourself in the future or what you expect to happen in the future. This part, mostly, should be in compatibility with the previous aspect, else your reader could get confused and lose interest in the book.

Conclusion: Like all stories, an autobiography also needs to have an apt conclusion. You can leave a lasting impression on the reader with the help of your conclusion. Remember, you do not need to have a "moral of the story". You can simply end it with hope, if you like.

Always remember, it is your autobiography, not an example of an autobiography, you can write it the way you like. So, experiment and enjoy. As they say, "if you find it interesting while writing it, the reader will find it interesting while reading it". This is where I sign off. Hope to find your autobiography on the stands soon!!

States and Canada and Europe In this ground breaking project the authors describe how the ABCs model complicated and challenged and changed the cultural perceptions of those who participated in it even those who were initially highly resistant to such possibilities At the heart of the project is the exchange of narratives life stories that give insight into the cultural worlds of selves and others In addition to the narratives other instruments including the Transcultural Competence Scale TCC provide further evidence of the positive impact of the ABCs on participants receptivity toward cultural differences In the TRANSABCs project researchers from both sides of the Atlantic invited teacher candidates students who will become workplace and other professionals to write an autobiography A of themselves from various cultural perspectives a biography B of an individual who is culturally different from themselves along particular dimensions and to use these documents to conduct cross cultural comparisons C between themselves and the person they interviewed Furthermore candidates developed culturally responsive ideas for the school or the workplace C These exchanges and analyses produced epiphanies and insights that translated into specific actions to improve cultural understanding and communication in classrooms and workplaces Educators and professionals can take from these examples to inspire their own personal journey toward greater cultural understanding and sensitivity *Autobiography of Dr. Thomas H. contributors to Romantic Autobiography in England embrace the challenge focusing not only on major writers such as William Wordsworth De Quincey and Mary Shelley but on more recent additions to the canon such as Mary Robinson Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Hays There are also essays on the scandalous Memoirs of Mrs Billington and on Joseph Severn s autobiographical scripting of himself as the friend of Keats The result is an exploratory and provisional mapping of the field provocative rather than exhaustive intended to inspire future scholarship and teaching

Labyrinths of Exemplarity Irene E. Harvey, 2012-02-01 Labyrinths of Exemplarity presents the first comprehensive in depth study of the problem of exemplarity or how we move between the general and the particular in order to try to understand our world The author s focus ranges from the most basic and fundamental issues of what examples are and where they come from to the complex key issues of how examples function in the discourses they inhabit and what this functioning tells us about the nature of examples or exemplarity itself The problem is treated especially in connection to Rousseau and Aristotle with reference to deconstruction especially Derrida and the range of Western metaphysics Ultimately a new theory of examples is offered one not drawn from the assumptions made by earlier philosophers but rather from the usage and functioning of examples in philosophical discourse
