Jerlando F. L. Jackson, University of Wisconsin-Madison

The Black Student's Pathway to Graduate Study and Beyond The Making of a Scholar makes key contributions to the extant literature. By underscoring Black graduate students' engagements with Academe, the scholars provide nuanced perspective through an array of contextual lenses, e.g., admissions, race, and gender socialization, transition that are endemic to higher education in general and the Historically Black College and University (HBCU) setting in particular. Critical Race Theory is the theoretical framework that provides scaffolding upon which the volume's scholars theorize best practices, strategies, and solutions that are authentic representations of their experiences. The pathway is an appropriate metaphor for this book; the scholars have provided illumination; it is incumbent upon us to initiate the journey.
