Olakunle George, 2012-02-01 2003 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Combining a sustained critical engagement of Anglo American theory with focused close readings of major African writers this book performs a long overdue cross fertilization of ideas among poststructuralism postcolonial theory and African literature The author examines several influential figures in current theory such as Habermas Althusser Laclau and Mouffe as well as the theorists of postcolonialism and offers an extended reading of the Nigerian writers D O Fagunwa Wole Soyinka Amos Tutuola and Chinua Achebe He argues that contrary to what the purism and voluntarism common to postcolonial theory might suggest one lesson of African letters is that significant agency can result from acts that are blind to their determinations For George African letters offer an instance of agency in motion as opposed to agency in theory Chinua Achebe Toyin Falola, 2024-10-17 An imaginative narratological reading of Chinua Achebe's novels stories poetry and essays through a literary and historical framework Toyin Falola analyzes fictional and historical cartographies of Africa in Achebe's literary works to offer a critical representation of Africa's present and future In particular he focuses on the historical valuation of a full range of the writer's works novels including Things Fall Apart but also short stories poems and essays as important materials that have contributed to the political events in Nigeria and by extension Africa The raw creativity found in Achebe's stories and his ability to tell the Nigerian story precolonial colonial and postcolonial have endeared him to many including readers and those critical of him and his works Chinua Achebe Narrating Africa in Fictions and History analyzes all of the writer's works dwelling on the Nigerian political context upon which many if not all of his narratives lie As a result it examines methodologies of narration and ideologies that allow his works to resonate with the imagination of Africa African Fiction and Joseph Conrad Byron Caminero-Santangelo, 2004-12-30 Interrogates the writing back to the center approach to intertextuality and explores alternatives to it
